Urban League Guild sponsors scholarship

Joan Cardwell, guild president, stated that the Winston-Salem Urban League Guild has distributed the Mollie L. Moon Urban League Guild Memorial Award scholarship applications to guidance counselors in the local high schools. The scholarship is for $5,000.

Also, the applications are available at the Urban League office from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The deadline for completing the applications is Monday, April 7. They should be returned to the Winston-Salem Urban League office at 201 W. Fifth St., Winston-Salem, NC 27101.

The Mollie L. Moon Urban League Guild Memorial Award provides educational assistance to African-American high school seniors. The Urban League Guild Scholarship Award is named in honor of Guild founder, Mollie L. Moon.

Applicants must be African-American seniors graduating from a public or private school, rank in the top 25 percent of their graduating class, and have a minimum grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 system.

The applicants must also have been accepted for admission into a two- or four-year accredited educational institution commencing classes in the current calendar year of the award and have participated a minimum of six months of community service within the year of application. Consideration will be given to applicants based on economic need. This is a general scholarship and is not associated with a specific field of study.

The National Urban League Guild was organized in the summer of 1942 "to further the activities of the Urban League, to popularize the League among sections of the community previously not touched by its activities and to lend financial support to the League."

The founder and the first president was Mollie L. Moon, of New York City. The Guild proved to be so successful supporting the National Urban League that it became evident that the same type of organization could be helpful to local Urban leagues.

The enthusiasm generated by the National Urban League Guild spearheaded the organization of 27 local Guilds in the next few years. Moon organized the first Guild in Canton, Ohio, in 1948.

The Winston-Salem Urban League Guild was begun in 1957. Today, there are 65 active guilds in the Urban League movement, with a total of nearly 3,000 members.

Last year, more than $200,000 was contributed to the Urban Leagues in various cities by their respective Guilds.
