Jabberwock theme: I Believe I Can Fly

The Winston-Salem alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority will present the Jabberwock at 7 p.m. March 22 at the Anderson Center on the campus of Winston-Salem State University. Eighteen young ladies from area high schools will compete for scholarships to colleges they will attend in the fall. The young ladies will attend the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, J.C. Smith, Hampton and Howard Universities, among others.

The admission for this event is $5. Thickets may be purchased from contestants and from members of the Delta Alumnae Chapter. The 1997 theme is "I Believe I Can Fly." Contestants will present their talent along with local group TNT, Reginald McCaskill, and other area artists. The winner of the Little Miss America contest will also be announced.

The contestants' dance was choreographed by Aurora Smith, a Delta and a student at Wake Forest University, and Tara Banks, a former Jabberwock contender. Members of the Jabberwock Committee are sorors Annette Howard, Karen Duckett, Yvette Hatcher, Loretta Salter, Robin Ervin, Pam Wagner, Cathy Pool and Mary Smith. Sorors Johnetta Huntley and Denise Harsfield are co-chairs of the event.

Is something missing from your checking account?

If you bank with someone other than Centura, you're probably missing a lot. Or if you're getting a lot, you're probably paying a lot for it. You see, most banks offer a "basic" package with a checking account. No frills. No extras. Centura's Money Manager Checking Accounts come with 8 standard features and benefits. Extras that you'll use everyday. Plus, you get access to over 270 ATMs, including Wal-Mart and Sam's locations. If your bank doesn't offer all this, switch to Centura. It's so easy, you can even do it over the phone. Call 1-800 CENTURA or stop in for a visit. We'll set you up with the Money Manager Checking Account that's right for you.
