

Deadline drawing closer for Twin City Youth Football Camp

Registration for camp to be held on Saturday at R.J. Reynolds Gym

The deadline for pre-registering for the First Annual Winston-Salem Youth Football Camp is nearing.

The camp will be held on June 16 and 17 at the Tiny Grayhound's Stadium on Clemmonsville Rd. Late registration will be held from 8 a.m. until 9 a.m. The instructional camp will begin at 9 a.m. and last until 12:30 p.m.

The cost for participating in the camp is $35.00 for those who have pre-registered. It will cost $40.00 to register the day of the camp.

A local group, headed by Bill Oakley, an assistant coach at Reynolds High, is hosting the camp.

Oakley has put together a group of coaches who will stress fundamentals in their presentation to kids ages seven through fifteen.

According to Oakley, the camp's objective is to "provide expert instruction and the opportunity for young players to develop skills to play football in a safe environment".

"What we're doing is to just promote the game of football to the youth of the community," Oakley said.

"We feel that our game is a good game. But because of the way our local athletics programs are structured we're not getting that across to a lot of kids.

Campers will be grouped according to age and the coaches will work directly with the campers to teach them in their respective area of expertise.

Oakley, who will serve as the camp director, has assembled a six-member staff with considerable experience on the high school level. Among those scheduled to participate are Chip Petree, head coach at North Davidson High, Randy Vogler, former defensive coordinator at East Forsyth, Doug Illing, assistant head coach at R.J. Reynolds High and Dorsey Keith, a former assistant coach at DeMatha High in Washington, D.C., who now coaches at Reynolds.

Snacks and drinks will be provided during two designated breaks. Campers will be provided T-shirts and are expected to bring athletic shorts and tennis shoes or cleats. Oakley said many big kids who are overweight for Pop Warner football don't have a chance to be introduced to high school until they reach high school. This camp is ideally suited for them to get to know what football is all about.

Campers can pre-register at Reynolds or by mail. Brochures are available at most Little League baseball fields. For further information, you can contact Oakley at 760-0810.
