

COMMUNITY CALENDAR

Annual Fellowship Banquet to be presented at Anderson Center

THURSDAY AUGUST 21

The Mary Sloan Jones Annual Fellowship Banquet for persons with disabilities will be held Aug. 21 at 6 p.m. at the Anderson Center on the campus of Winston-Salem State University. The banquet will feature a guest speaker, entertainment, door prizes and more.

The cost is $10 for persons without disabilities, $5 for senior adults 55 and older, and there is no cost for persons with disabilities. Sponsors are needed to assist with the costs. Transportation will be provided for persons who qualify. All requests for transportation must be in by Aug. 15.

For further details, call 727-2505.

St. The band Been Caught Stealin' will perform. Domino's Pizza, Subway subs, hot dogs, beer and soft drinks will be available. Admission is $3. The public is invited.

SATURDAY AUGUST 23

Neighborhood Reunion

A UNITY neighborhood reunion will take place Aug. 23, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Bowen Park Par Course. Winston-Salem State University band, cheerleaders and football team are expected to visit as a part of the university's commitment to being actively involved in East Winston.

SUNDAY AUGUST 24

Fulp Family Reunion

The Fulp family reunion will be held Aug. 24 at the Winston-Salem Recreation Department's North Hampton Center, 4213 Whitfield Rd. from noon to 5 p.m. Family and friends are invited to "pack picnic baskets and come out to enjoy the fun, fellowship, good food and renewed acquaintances." For more information, call Ann Sprinkle at 767-7626.

MONDAY AUGUST 25

Meet the Team

Kennedy Middle School PTSA and teachers will host a Meet the Team hot dog supper 6:15 to 7 p.m. Aug. 25 in the cafeteria. Meetings will follow in the team rooms. Parents will meet with team teachers to learn about curriculum and team philosophy.

WEDNESDAY AUGUST 27

Job Expo '97

The ninth annual Job Expo will be held Aug. 27 at the Four Seasons Town Centre from noon to 7 p.m. Jane Walter from Career Development Consultants, will be our speaker for the noon seminar, and ABC Medias-Resume Pros, will have a booth to review the resumes of attendees.

More than 70 employers will be exhibiting, and over 1,500 potential employees are expected. A wide range of industries will be represented, such as insurance, restaurants, health care, telemarketing, employment services, education, government, military, and more.

Fashion Fair

The Winston-Salem Urban League Guild will sponsor its 40th Ebony Fashion Fair and Scholarship Competition Oct. 31 at 8 p.m. in the M.C. Benton Convention Center.

Guild members are seeking teenagers age 15-19 who are interested in participating in the scholarship contest.

An interest/orientation meeting for contestants and their parents will be held Aug. 27 at the Urban League, 201 W. Fifth St. at 5 p.m.

For additional information, call 725-5614. Please respond by Aug. 25.

FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 5

Gallery Hop

Fourteen galleries will open their doors Sept. 5 from 7 to 10 p.m. for the 10th anniversary of the fall Gallery Hop. Shops in the Sixth and Trade Art District, on Fourth Street and on Reynolda Road will form a city-wide open house featuring a vast array of art, from iron work to antiques, African-American art to North Carolina handmade pottery. In addition to art, the event promises food, fun, and at Sixth and Trade, live entertainment.

MONDAY SEPTEMBER 8

Chorale Auditions

The Winston-Salem Symphony Chorale will hold auditions for new members at open rehearsals Sept. 8 and Monday, Sept 15 at College Park Baptist Church, 1701 Polo Rd., just off Reynolda Road.

Prospective members should arrive at 7 p.m., returning singers at 7:30.

The chorale, conducted by James Allbritten of the N.C. School of the Arts faculty, will perform the Mozart Requiem with the symphony at the Stevens Center in February and present a Christmas concert and a spring concert.

For more information, call the symphony office at 725-1035.

TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 9

Career Conference

The Winston-Salem Chapter of Professional Secretaries International, the Association for Office Professionals, will sponsor a career development conference "Communication: Key to Personal and Professional Success," Sept. 9 from 4 to 7 p.m. at the Adam's Mark West Tower (formerly the Radisson Marquee), 460 Cherry St. in Winston-Salem.

The guest speaker will be Dr. Paul R. Berrier of Gaston College in Dallas, N.C. The cost is $35. To register call Mae Jackson, CPS, at 650-7538 or Jo A. Peay at 741-5865.

SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 13

Fiesta '97

The Hispanic League of the Piedmont Triad is sponsoring the sixth annual Downtown Street Festival Sept. 13 from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. in a new location, on the corner of First and Church streets in Winston-Salem. The afternoon will be filled with live Hispanic music, dancers, children's activities, arts, crafts and kiosks of international foods.

For more information, call 744-5006.

25-year Reunion

North Forsyth High School class of 1972 is planning their 25-year reunion for Sept. 13.

For more information, call Debbie Smith Ruark at 724-2080 or Selwyn Matthews at 969-5480, or write North Forsyth Class of '72, P.O. Box 365, Germanton, N.C. 27019.

THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 18

Alive After Five

Central Winston-Salem Association and others will present Alive After Five, an after-work party with great music, in downtown Winston-Salem Sept. 18 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. at Corpening Plaza.

The jazz band Nightbreeze will perform. Admission is $1 for adults; children are admitted free. Parking will be free at lots at First and Main, First and Cherry and on the street. Food and beverages will be available for purchase.

PLAN AHEAD

Paisley Reunion

Paisley High School class of 1967 is planning their 30th-year reunion for Oct. 17-19. For more information, call John Polite at 721-5147 (pager) or Deborah Ford Sims at 722-0573, or write at P.O. Box 16166, Winston-Salem, NC 27115-6166.

C.P. Booker

C.P. Booker appointed to Forsyth County Jury Commission

Senior Resident Superior Court Judge Judson D. DeRamus Jr. recently appointed C.P. Booker to a fifth two-year term as a member of the Forsyth County Jury Commission.

Booker's term on the three-member Jury Commission began July 1. The remaining two members are appointed by the Clerk of Superior Court and the Forsyth County Commissioners.

A native of Madison, N.C., Booker served two years in the United States Army, after which he returned to the Triad. Booker began working with the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company as an agent in 1949 and retired from its management in 1988. Booker's present activities include service on the board of the Literacy Initiative program. He serves on the Board of Leadership Winston-Salem and works with the Leadership Winston-Salem Alumni. He is chairman of the Winston-Salem Revolving Loan Committee. He serves as second vice chairman of the board of directors of Experiment in Self-Reliance. He is also on the advisory board of Project Blueprint.

He and his wife, Margaret Brown Booker, have lived in Winston-Salem since 1960. He is a member of Mt. Zion Baptist Church and serves on the Trustee Committee.

Recreation Registration

The Brown Douglas Recreation Center, 4725 Indiana Ave., will be registering participants for youth sports, classes and fall trips through Sept. 30. Classes will include after-school tutorial for grades 1-12 in arts and crafts, African-American history and other youth programming.

Parental support and volunteers are needed. Those interested should contact Bryant McCorkle at 767-9496.

Adult programs are also being offered in weight management, ceramics, GED classes, basket and crafts, fitness classes, senior meals and activities and a par course.

FRIDAY AUGUST 22

Friday at Five

The Downtowners and Old Greensborough Preservation Society will present Friday at Five: 360 Communications Night, an after-work event in downtown Greensboro Aug. 22 from 5 to 8:30 p.m. The event will take place at the Depot, 300 E. Washington

Mosé Belton-Brown

Mosé Belton-Brown named to Top Ten for second year

Award winning Allstate agency owner Mosé Belton-Brown, LUTCF, was recently named among the Top Ten Women of the Year by the Forsyth County Chapter of the American Business Women's Association. Each local chapter selects a Top Ten woman who has exemplified outstanding business leadership and entrepreneurship in the community. Belton-Brown was also recognized in 1996 as the chapter's Top Ten woman.

Belton-Brown has been an Allstate agency since 1986.

She was the first minority woman in Winston-Salem to receive a neighborhood office agency.

The Mosé Belton-Brown

Allstate Insurance agency specializes in life, business, auto and homeowners insurance.

Prior to coming to Allstate, she taught for 12 years in the local school system.

The Triad Singles Line
Where Singles Become Couples Every Day!

727-1166

- FREE Local Call
- FREE Voice Mail Box
- Listen for FREE

Serving Winston-Salem, Greensboro, High Point Area
1001 S. Marshall St., Suite 43,
WS, NC 27101

At Your Service
INSURANCE AGENT

Mosé Belton-Brown
LUTCF
Senior Account Agent
Agency Mission
It is our goal at this agency to treat you as you would like to be treated. We will listen to you and provide reliable advice and service. We will operate our agency with an open door policy and invite you to request our assistance at any time.

Home • Auto • Life Insurance

Mosé Belton-Brown
Allstate Insurance
3911-A University Parkway
910-759-3911

1-800-994-9222
WWW.WACHOVIA.COM

Where are you?

Have you discovered that running your own business is more than a full-time job? Are you CEO, coffee maker, receptionist, CFO, and sales force? We are here. To make sure you have the tools you need to keep your focus on the business at hand. To help you customize those tools to the needs of your unique business. To make things like paying federal and some of your state taxes over the phone a convenient reality. If your board meetings take place around the kitchen table, give us a call. Because in our view, every business has a personality all its own.

We are here.

WACHOVIA

Let's get started.