

How & Where

To Purchase A Pre-Owned Vehicle

Advice on buying a pre-owned vehicle that comes from a professional organization that has sold more vehicles than you could park bumper to bumper from Winston-Salem to New York City.

BUY FROM Buy from a long established new car dealer. Their reputation is at stake and they won't knowingly sell you a bad vehicle. If they do, they will repair it, trade you another one or buy it back!	ASK FOR Ask for the name, address and telephone number of the previous owner. If this is not available, you need to shop somewhere else. Telephone the previous owner and find out why they traded the vehicle. This might save you a lot of grief.	AVOID Avoid vehicles that have had only one owner but may have had hundreds of drivers (such as rental cars, taxis and police cars). The mileage on these vehicles may not be truly indicative of wear and abuse.	RECORDS/WARRANTY Ask to see the service record on the vehicle and a record of the repairs made in preparation for resale. Get a written warranty. Read it carefully.	PROGRAM/OFF-LEASE If the vehicle is a Program car or Off-Lease car, verify this by looking at the title. There may be differences between the lease and the daily rental.
