Matt Coleman and Eric Isler of Parkland battle David Elderidge of North Forsyth in the Vikings win over Parkland.

BROWN

 "She's a good player and we put in a lot of plays for her to score. We have some other good players but they didn't play because they're still nursing injuries.

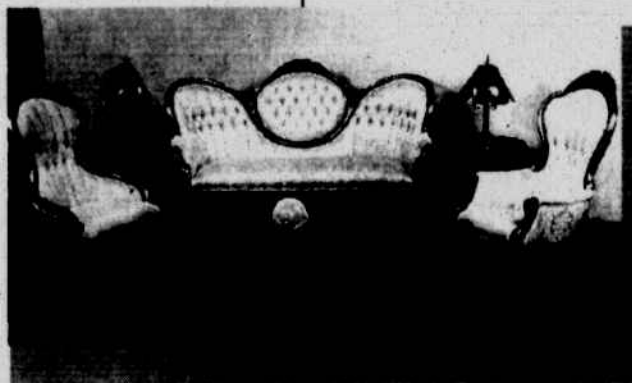

The win was a big confidence builder for us. I think they learned more in the last two games than they've learned in four weeks of practice. Our entire team is new. There are no holdovers from last year so we pretty much are starting over."

Parkland battle North to-toe in the second half, outscoring the Vikings in the second half.
