

Brotherly love strong among laymen

Tommy Hickman, seated on right, welcomes Robert Long and laymen from Mount Zion Baptist Church to a quarterly laymen's breakfast at Emmanuel Baptist Church. Standing, from left, Copid Kallum, William Wilson, Alfred Adams, Henry Banks, Cello P. Booker, and Robert Young. C.B. Hauser is not shown.

Missionaries celebrate 5th annual Mission day

Special to THE CHRONICLE

The Missionary Society of Shouse Temple Christian Methodist Episcopal Church will observe its fifth Sunday Mission Day May 31 at 11 a.m.

The theme for the day will be "Discipleship 2,000: A Missionary Calling."

The morning worship service will be conducted by the Missionary Society. Participants include Janis Evans, Mae Price, Lillie Mae Smith, Margaret Payne and First Lady Evelyn Thompson.

Music will be provided by the Men's Chorus.

The guest speaker will be Marvella Wilson Willoughby who is the daughter of Hattie Wilson and the late Rev. W. Edward Wilson. She is the mother of attorney Marqui Willoughby and a member of Hanes Memorial CME. She is also an associate member of Reynolds Temple CME.

She is a longtime member of the National Women's Council Quadrennium where she serves on the Committee of Education, Publicity and History. She was a lay delegate to the 1994 General Conference in Memphis and served as the director of the Carolina Conference's 1998 Missionary Institute in Charlotte. Willoughby teaches history and was a semifinalist in the Forsyth County Teacher of the Year competition.

Willoughby

She earned her undergraduate degree at Paine College in Augusta, Ga. and is completing post graduate studies at Duke University and UNC Chapel Hill.

Shouse Temple is located at 4250 Carver School Road in Winston-Salem.

Missionary Day at St. Stephens

Special to THE CHRONICLE

Elizabeth "Liz" Young and the Rev. Purvis Morris will be guest speakers for St. Stephens Missionary Day.

May 31 will be Missionary Day at St. Stephens Missionary Baptist Church. Scheduled to appear are Elizabeth "Liz" Williams Young of Southport. Young is a retired educator. She has been a teacher and assistant principal as well as supervisor for Brunswick County Schools. She holds a bachelor of science degree from North Carolina Central University and a masters degree from Tuskegee Institute. Young has done Graduate work at A&T, Syracuse and East Carolina University and has done doctoral course work through Nova University.

Within the N.C. Baptist com-

Young

munity Young is best known for her tenure served as President of the Congress of Christian Education for the General Baptist State Convention, and also for the five years that she has been the Forsyth County Institute instructor for the Missionaries.

At 4 p.m. the Rev. Purvis Morris, associate minister at Cedar Grove Baptist Church in Greensboro, will speak. Morris is a native of Walnut Cove and presently resides in Stokesdale.

Morris is a graduate of South Stokesdale High and holds an associate degree in mortuary science from Fayetteville Community College and a bachelor of theology degree.

The Lott/Carey, Magdaline Samuels and the Naomi and Esther Missionary Groups are the sponsoring groups. The Rev. J. R. Samuels is the pastor of St. Stephens.

Evangelist Christina Glenn to Speak at St. John Christian Methodist

Special to THE CHRONICLE

In observance of the birthday of the late Dr. Mattie E. Coleman, the Mattie E. Coleman circle of the Missionary Society of St. John Christian Methodist Episcopal Church will conduct the 11:00 a.m. worship service on May 31.

Dr. Mattie E. Coleman was the founder of the Missionary Society of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church. The theme for the program is "Faith of Our Leaders Living Still." Evangelist Christina Glenn, is the special guest speaker for the service.

Glenn is a native of Guilford County. She is the daughter of the Rev. Charles W. Glenn Sr.,

Glenn

pastor of Gwynn's Chapel Baptist Church in Pelham and Minister Janet McCoy-Glenn.

Glenn has been an ordained minister for four years. She is the youth pastor at Gwynn's Chapel Baptist Church. Glenn has formed numerous groups and choirs, among other accomplishments.

The Mattie E. Coleman circle of the Missionary Society of St. John is under the leadership of Kristin Pettigrew, daughter of Dinah Pettigrew, who is president of the Missionary Society of St. John.

The church is located at 650 N.W. Crawford Place in Winston-Salem where the pastor is the Rev. Bobby R. Best.

Mount Zion Baptist Church reaches climax of celebration

Special to THE CHRONICLE

Mount Zion Baptist Church, of Winston-Salem, has been celebrating its 109th anniversary for the entire month of May. Notable speakers have included Dr. Gabriel Churn, pastor of Union Temple Baptist Church of Baltimore, Md.; the Rev. Gloria Gerald, associate pastor of First Baptist Church of Highland Avenue, Winston-Salem as well as Dr. William Booth, pastor of First Baptist Church of Hampton, Va. The speaker for this Sunday's 11 o'clock service will be Dr. Talbert O. Shaw, President of Shaw University. The service will be immediately followed by an anniversary banquet in the fellowship hall of The File-Goodwin Center, named after two former pastors of the church. The speaker for the banquet will be Dr. Maya Angelou.

Talbert Shaw began his collegiate education at West Indies College in Mandeville, West Indies. He later matriculated through Andrews University, in Barren Springs, Mich., where he attained his A.B. in history and religious studies and minored in speech. Shaw then earned his M.A. and Ph.D., in ethics and society, from the University of Chicago. He is the recipient of numerous awards and honors. Shaw began his teaching career at Oakwood College in Huntsville, Al. as an associate professor of social ethics. He has taught at other institutions of higher learning including Howard University, Catholic University, Bowie State College, Federal City College, Princeton University and Morgan State University. At these other institutions Shaw has served various administrative positions ranging from dean of student affairs to dean. Shaw has been president of Shaw University since 1987.

Maya Angelou is internationally known for her literary, poetic, educational and social-awareness contributions. Likewise, Angelou is recognized for her acting and directorial accomplishments. She is acknowledged as an orator of ages because the continued interest she attracts from toddlers, teens and adults.

This year the anniversary banquet is, once again, available to the public. For more information about ticket sales, please contact Hazel Brown at (336) 721-1842 from between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.

Maya Angelou will be the guest speaker for Mount Zion Baptist Church's anniversary banquet.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING REZONING OF PROPERTY CITY OF WINSTON-SALEM

The Board of Aldermen will consider requests to amend the City of Winston-Salem Zoning Ordinance by rezoning property as shown below:

DATE: June 1, 1998 TIME: 7:30 p.m.

PLACE: Board of Aldermen Chamber, City Hall

- 1) Petition of Hanes Baptist Church; from RS-7 to PB; property located on the northeast side of Executive Park Boulevard between Harvey Street and Thurston Street. W-2221.
- 2) Petition of the City of Winston-Salem; from HB and MH to HB; property located on the northeast side of Silas Creek Parkway between Lockland Avenue and Salisbury Ridge Road. W-2223.
- 3) Petition of Vickie G. Hairston; from RS-9 to RM-8-S (Child Day Care Center, and Residential Building, Single Family); property located on the east side of Oak Ridge Drive south of Lansing Drive and approximately 95 feet north of Johnson Harding Court. W-2224.
- 4) Petition of The Salvation Army for property owned by DHD Associates (Contract to Purchase Pending); from RS-7 to LO-S (Professional Office; and Offices, Miscellaneous). W-2225.
- 5) Petition of Lawrence M. Godfrey; from RS-9 to RM-12; property separated into two separate tracts of land as follows: Tract 1 - property located on the south side of Cloister Drive approximately 510 feet west of Trent Street; Tract 2 - property located on the south side of Cloister Drive approximately 475 feet west of Trent Street. W-2226.
- 6) Petition of Frances Hendrix; from RS-9, RS-30, and RM-12 to NSB-S (Shopping Center - TWO PHASE); property located at the northeast corner of Old Hollow Road/NC 66 and Germantown Road/NC 8. W-2228.
- 7) Petition of Carl R. Sapp; from RS-9 and HB-S (Veterinary Services) to LB-S (Combined Use; Arts and Crafts Studio; Furniture and Home Furnishings Store; Hardware Store; Retail Store, Specialty or Miscellaneous; Banking and Financial Services; Medical and Surgical Offices; Non-Store Retailer; Offices, Miscellaneous; Professional Office; Services, Business A; Services, Personal; Veterinary Services; Church or Religious Institution, Community; Church or Religious Institution, Neighborhood; Government Offices; Library, Public; Museum or Art Gallery; Neighborhood Organization; Police or Fire Station; Broadcast Studio); property located on the south side of Robinhood Road across from Shattalon Drive. W-2227.
- 8) Final Development Plan proposed by Thomas Hughes for property owned by Linwood L. Davis for an office building in at GO-S (professional Office; and Office, Miscellaneous - TWO PHASE) Zoning District; property is located on the west side of Silas Creek Parkway approximately 270 feet north of Polo Road and is a part of tract 2 of the Sunnynoll Development. W-1517.
- 9) Proposal to amend various sections of the UDO as follows: Section 7-5.2 "Protection of Property", Section 7-6 "Basic Control Objectives", and Section 7-7 "Mandatory Standards for Land Disturbing Activity: of the Erosion Control Ordinance (Article VII) of Chapter C Environmental Ordinance regarding protection of floodway and floodway fringe areas-UDO-38.
- 10) Proposal of Salem Baptist Church to amend the UDO regarding the establishment of a new use "Campground or Retreat Center, Nonprofit" UDO-37.

Prior to the hearing, interested persons may obtain any additional information which is in the possession of the City/County Planning Board in that office at City Hall on weekdays, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Interested citizens will be given an opportunity to be heard.

All requests for appropriate and necessary auxiliary aids and services must be made within a reasonable time prior to the hearing to Angela Carmon at 727-2056 or TDD No. 727-8319.

THIS MEETING WILL BE BROADCAST LIVE ON CITY TV-13.

Renee P. Rice, Secretary to the Board of Aldermen

Ready to subscribe?

Call Us

THE CHRONICLE

722-8624