Fayetteville State captures sixth CIAA title in seven years

Host Fayetteville State captured its sixth CIAA golf championship in seven seasons when it won the league's 1998 title at Willow Lakes Golf Course in Fayetteville, NC. The Championship consisted of an 18-hole. The Broncos led all schools at the conclusion of the first round and went on to claim the crown with a score of 626.

St. Augustine's finished second and Johnson C. Smith finished third with 672 and 700 strokes respectively.

Saud Jabali-Nash of St. Augustine's was named 1998 CIAA Tournament Medalist accumulating 149 strokes over two days.

N.C. Central Crowned CIAA Softball Champions

North Carolina Central defeated Virginia State in two straight games of a best of three series to win the 1988 CIAA Softball championship.

The Lady Eagles won by lopsided scores in both games. In the first game, Stephanie Spindler hit a timely three-run double in the fifth inning to secure the win for the Lady Eagles. Spindler was named to the All-CIAA and All-Tournament Teams.

Michelle Harrison, CIAA Player of the Year, was 3-for-3 with 2 RBIs and a homerun. In game two, NCCU scored seven runs in the first innins and never looked back. The Lady Eagles limited Virginia State to just one unearned run and three hits for the entire game.

NCCU pitcher Lisa Hicks was named Tournament MVP.

N.C. Central dominates J.C. Smith to win CIAA Tennis Championship

The second-seeded North Carolina Central dominated the Johnson C. Smith University Golden Bulls (7-2) to claim the 1998 CIAA Tennis Championship in Raleigh, N.C. recently.

Rain and poor playing conditions forced the site of the championship to move from its original site in Fayetteville, NC to indoor courts at the Raleigh Racquet Club in Raleigh, N.C.

St. Augustine's College defeated Winston-Salem State University in the consolation match. Johnson C. Smith defeated WSSU (8-1 and NCCU defeated St. Augustine's in the semifinal rounds of play.

Garrick Jones of Johnson C. Smith was named tournament.
