Cleveland Ave. Christian to hold play at WSSU

Special to THE CHRONICLE

The Cleveland Avenue Christian Church's Drama Ministry presents a new and original gospel stage play titled "That Special Gift." Arlene Crump, church member of Cleveland Avenue, wrote, produced and directed the play with "the guidance of God."

The play will be held Oct. 9 at 7:00 p.m. at the Kenneth R. Williams Auditorium on the campus of Winston-Salem State University.

"This appointed time that God has ordained for His people, on the night of this play will marvel you, but yet minister to you, entertain you but yet leave an impact on you, and you will find it to be humorous, but yet soul-searching," said Crump.

"That Special Gift" is a "new and exciting" play that demonstrates a grandmother's warfare to save her three grandchildren, especially her oldest granddaughter Sheila, who has not released the trauma of the death of her mom and dad. This performance relates to believers and non-believers in life's experiences of today's environment. It confronts the issues of forgiveness and lack of forgiveness, trust and lack of trust, security and insecurity, confidence and low self-esteem and victory in prayer and restitution through violence.

The people that God chose for His play are as follows:

- Minister Cynthia Duncan as Mama Teen (Spirit-filled grandmother).
- Sister Shieghetha Johnson as Sheila (older granddaughter, age 21).
- Sister Shaunda Eggleston as Wanda (younger granddaughter, age 16).
- Brother Tim Banner as Daniel (grandson, age 12).

- Sister Minnie Mickle as Bea Jessup (Mama Teen's best friend).
- Deacon Kirby Howard as Calvin (Sheila's friend, age 23).
- Brother Leo Rucker as Deacon Russell (deacon of the church).
- Minister Kedrick Lowery as Pastor Bynum (pastor of the Church).
- Sister Pat Brown as Bad Guy #1.
- Brother Louie Clinkscales as Julio, Bad Guy # 2 and the voice of Satan.
- Deacon Arthur Phinx as the voice of God.

The Rev. Sheldon M. McCarter and Joyce McCarter are the pastor and co-pastor of Cleveland Avenue Christian Church.

For ticket information call CACC between 9 a.m.-4 p.m. at (336) 722-8866.

'God's Trombones' to play at Mount Zion

Special to THE CHRONICLE

Who says that different ages, different generations and races can't come together for a great cause? "God's Trombones" is such a project. The show will be held in The File-Goodwin Enrichment Center of Mount Zion Baptist Church, Winston-Salem Oct. 10. Dinner will be served at 6 p.m. and show time will begin at 8 p.m.

The show is being directed by Janice Price-Hinton, Artistic Director of the Artistic Studio as a labor of love to raise funds for the Women's Day effort.

The show will feature sermons written by James Weldon Johnson and also feature high-energy contemporary and spiritual gospel music as well as interpretive dance. The cast contains professional and non-professional performers, members and non-members of Mount Zion Baptist ranging in age from 7- to 60-years-old. The play's setting starts in heaven. The plot: God commands His angels to go to earth and preach His Word. Earth has drifted from His teaching and the time is drawing near for the Rapture of Jesus' return where He will gather His faithful followers and save many who have strayed. The angels enthusiastically prepare for this mission and thus become God's Trombones.

Mount Zion Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, is located at Martin Luther King Jr. Drive and File Street. The Rev. Serenus T. Churn Sr., D.D. is the pastor.
