

Sims Center students treated to Livingstone-WSSU game

Special to THE CHRONICLE

Academic achievers from the William C. Sims Center in Happy Hill Gardens were the Academic Guests of the Week at the Winston-Salem State football game against Livingstone last Saturday night at Bowman Gray Stadium.

The students were the guests of Anne Little, WSSU's athletics director and assistant director Adrian Ferguson, Blanche Ford, administrative assistant and Kim Hickman (work-study student).

The students were honored for their academic achievement in school and their conduct in school and at the recreation center. The students were treated to food and choice seats at the game.

The students cheered on two of their own, Tory Woodbury of Winston-Salem State and Wahid Kim-brough of Livingstone, who grew up in Happy Hill and played sports at the Sims Center.

Ben Piggott, center supervisor said he was happy that the students were exposed to college life in the CIAA.

"I would like to thank Anne Little personally for making this event special for the children who want to make academics come first and athletics second."

Following the game, the students from the Sims Center were treated to a special visit by the Livingstone College team, which defeated WSSU 38-33.

Kermit Blount Show visits Hanes Hosiery Recreation Center

Special to THE CHRONICLE

Hanes Hosiery Recreation Center hosted the Kermit Blount Football presented by WSNC-FM 90.5 and its host Bill Franklin last Monday night (Oct. 5).

Following a big Homecoming win against Fayetteville State University on Oct. 3, Coach Kermit Blount brought two of his stand-out football players, senior running back Tyrone Murphy and junior defensive back Deryl Wilson.

Blount, Murphy and Wilson talked and answered questions about the win over Fayetteville State and their overall season and games ahead. They also talked to the Hanes Hosiery kids about school, the importance of a good education, a good attitude, keeping up their grades and conduct and doing the right things in life.

participants at the show said they were very impressed with the football show, Coach Blount and his players Murphy and Wilson, who both really gave the kids some wonderful advice and insight on what it takes to be a college athlete. Art Blevins, hanes Hosiery director, said it was a very positive and enjoyable program and thanked Bill Franklin of WSNC Radio, Coach Blount and his Rams, Murphy and Wilson for a wonderful evening and an educating experience for his kids at Hanes Hosiery Recreation Center.

Vikings Bantams take 12-6 extra time win over Lewisville Titans

Alton Brooks scored on a 10-yard run in overtime to lift the Tiny Vikings to victory in a key Bantam matchup last Saturday.

The game was deadlocked 6-6 at the end of regulation before the Vikings scored the game-winning touchdown. Earl Boston paved the way for Brooks' touchdown with a key block that helped him scamper into the end zone.

Quarterback D'Angelo Gray scored the Vikings' only other touchdown on a 10-yard run. The Vikings defense, led by Ralph Pearson, Boston, Reginald Pouncey and Corey Little kept the team in the game until the offense gelled.

Coach Willie Ashford Jr. said his team overcame mental mistakes with a tough physical attack.

"We were blessed with more step toward our goal," Ashford said.

Big second quarter leads Vikings Pee Wees past Lewisville Titans, 20-6

The Tiny Vikings scored 20 second-quarter points en route to a 20-6 win over the Titans last Saturday.

James Samuels scored the first Viking touchdown on a short touchdown. Samuels then added the extra point. William Tatum made the next touchdown on a 10-yard pass to increase the score to 13-6.

After the Titans fought back to record a 40-yard touchdown run, Chris Plater sealed the win with a quarterback keeper that carried for a touchdown with 34 seconds remaining in the second quarter. Trumane Hodge added the extra point with a run up the middle for the Vikings. Coach William Aikens, the Vikings' defensive coordinator, said his unit played hard and showed a lot of character in the win.

Antwan Hughes, a Viking assistant, remarked that the defense played hard and was able to sustain its effort in the second half.

Grayhounds Flags take 12-6 win over Tiny Indians

Rashad Timmons score on a 35-yard quarterback keeper around the right side and added a two-yard touchdown run to boost the Tiny Grayhounds Flags to victory last Saturday at Ray Agnew Jr. Field.

The Grayhounds were tied 6-6 at the half after Timmons scored his first touchdown run. But the Indians fought back to tie the game. Darius Rouse gave the Grayhounds an offensive boost when he took the second half kickoff and bolted 62 yards to the Indians two-yard line. On the next play Timmons added his second touchdown of the game.

Defensively, the Grayhounds were led by Rashad Fleming, who pulled four flags. Timmons and Vernon Brown pulled three each. Louis Lowery had two stops and Christian Fletcher anchored the middle of the Grayhounds defense.

Rouse finished the game with 65 yards on four carries, Timmons rushed for 37 yards on two carries, Sadarius Palmer rushed for 35 yards on three carries and Jonathan Johnson added 40 yards on two carries.

Coach John Timmons said his team prevailed against a tough Indians squad.

"We came into the game expecting them to be ready and they were," Timmons said. "It was a good game and I commend the Indians for being ready to play. I'm very proud of our team the way they played on a wet field."

Revels' run paces Grayhound Mighty Mites in 6-0 win over Indians

Tim Revels raced 60 yards on the second play of the game and the Grayhounds held on to take a 6-0 win to spoil the Indians' Homecoming.

Jabre Murphy led the Grayhounds' defensive effort, which shut down the Indians for much of the game. The Grayhounds bounced back after suffering their first loss the previous week against the Vikings. The win helped the Grayhounds (5-1) reclaim a share of first place in their division.

Shepherd's three TDs lead Grayhounds Junior Pee Wees to 25-6 win

Timmy Shepherd rushed for three touchdowns and amassed 225 yards on 10 carries to boost the Tiny Grayhounds Junior Pee Wees.

Shepherd scored on runs of 80, 50 and 60 yards. He got good backing from George Bryant, who passed for 150 yards on 8-of-12 passing and one touchdown. Kenny Samuels also chipped in, returning an interception 30 yards for a touchdown.

Coach Ralph Dean said the win kept his team in the playoff picture.

"It was a big win for us and the kids came ready to play after the loss to the Vikings," Dean said. "It was a game we had to have. The Grayhounds, who improved to 4-2, will play at the King Dolphins on Saturday.
