

Brooks on a 10-yard touchdown pass after the Bears' drive consumed more than five minutes and came 45 seconds before halftime.

Both offenses struggled in the third quarter, which included five defensive highlights. In the quarter there were four interceptions and a safety. Livingstone recorded a safety after the first interception. Tornell Jones picked off an errant Tiger pass at his own 31.

Hopper threw a dart to Theron Wigfall on a slant route and Wigfall carried the ball for a 65-yard gain before being caught from behind by Ralph Gaines of Tuskegee. Wigfall fumbled at the Tuskegee four-yard line and the ball rolled into the end zone, where it was recovered by Ralph Ganes, a Tuskegee defensive back. Ganes tried to run the ball out of the end zone but ended up taking a knee in the end zone. But the Golden Tigers were hit with a holding penalty on the return and Livingstone was awarded a safety with 10:49 remaining in the third quarter.

D'Andre Hopper gave Livingstone a lift with his passing.

Livingstone's ground game had accounted for nearly 300 yards per game, but was quiet against Tuskegee.

Tuskegee got its final score after the teams traded interceptions. It was set up by a 59-yard run by Scott to Livingstone four-yard line. Antonio Knight, who came in to replace James at quarterback, scored on a 10-yard run with 10:47 remaining in the game.

The Blue Bears put together two more threats before game's end, but couldn't get into the end zone after being stopped on fourth-down attempts.

Abrams said big plays by Tuskegee hurt his team's chances.

"When you give up two touchdown passes, including a 90-yarder that's got to be the difference," Abrams said. "They made big plays and kept us from making big plays."

"Today, it looked like they were just bigger and stronger than we were.

We'd make some good plays and then they'd get a big play. All I can say is that they played better."

James was named the MVP for Tuskegee after finishing the day with 204 yards passing on six-of-14 passing. Hopper was named Livingstone's MVP. He rushed for 34 yards and added 185 yards through the air.
