

Norfolk State places five players on 25th Anniversary CIAA Women's Team

This season marks the 25th year for the CIAA Women's Basketball Tournament and, in recognition of this year's silver anniversary the CIAA, is honoring a team of 25 women players, who will be named to its Hall of Fame, as its 25th Anniversary CIAA Women's Basketball Team.

The list of 25 players was selected by the CIAA's Sports Information Directors earlier this year. Players on the team was honored at the Women's Tipoff Banquet (Sunday, Feb. 21) and will be enshrined in the hall at the annual Hall of Fame Breakfast on Wednesday (Feb. 24).

Norfolk State, a former member of the league, which has gone on to the MEAC and Division I membership, had five former players selected for this prestigious honor. Hampton Univ., another former constituent member of the league, was also well-represented with three of its former players earning a berth on the team.

There were five programs (Winston-Salem State, Bowie State, Fayetteville State, St. Augustine's and St. Paul's) that had only one former member of their teams named to the 25th Anniversary Team.
