Hanes Memorial CME will celebrate homecoming

Special to THE CHRONICLE

On June 6 former pastor Rev. William S. Fails will deliver a pre-homecoming message at 5 p.m. at Hanes Memorial C.M.E. Church. The Missing Man's Choir will accompany Fails and the congregation of First United Baptist Church.

Fails was born in Denver, Colo., in March 1953. He is the third of five children. The son of a soldier, he was educated in the military post school in Fort Leonardwood, Mo., and the public schools of Fort Smith, Ark., and Leesville, La. In 1966 his family moved to Oklahoma City, Okla., where he graduated from Northeast High School in 1972.

In the fall of 1972, Fails entered Lane College in Jackson, Tenn., and received a B.S. degree in social welfare/sociology with a minor in history in 1976.

In 1980 he entered the Interdenominational Theological Center

(ITC) in Atlanta, Ga. After study at ITC for two years, he transferred to Howard University School of Divinity. In May 1986 he graduated with a master of divinity degree.

Fails was called to preach in 1968, but did not enter the ministry until late 1969. He was licensed to preach in 1969 at Cleaves Memorial C.M.E. Church in Oklahoma City.

While an undergrad, he was pastor at Hope Hill C.M.E. Church at Sitka, Tenn., and Dyer C.M.E. in Dyer, Tenn. Upon graduating from Lane College, he returned to Oklahoma and was pastor at Chandler C.M.E. Church in Chandler, Okla., and Falls C.M.E. Church in Falls, Okla.

Rev. Fails

While matriculating at ITC, he was pastor of Clifford Temple C.M.E. Church in Thomasville, Ga. Fails was then transferred to Washington, D.C. to be pastor of Lane Memorial C.M.E. Church.

In 1986 he was assigned to Hanes Memorial C.M.E. Church in Winston-Salem, where he served until 1989. Then he was transferred to Anderson, S.C., to serve as pastor of Mt. Carmel C.M.E. Church. The next move for Fails was in 1990 to Statesville, where he was pastor at Holsey C.M.E. Church.

In the summer of 1991, Fails was called to be the pastor of First United Baptist Church of High Point, where he currently serves.

Fails is a member of the Ministers Conference of Winston-Salem and Vicinity, the Ministers Conference of High Point, NAACP, Citizens United for Justice, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc. and Prince Hall Lodge.

He is husband to Janese Fortune Fails and father of Herston Raymon, Stephen Nicoalas and Afrecah Simone Fails.

On June 12 the congregation at Hanes Memorial C.M.E. Church will host a homecoming outdoor festival. The festival will include games, prizes, food and vendors. Anyone interested in setting up as a vendor should contact the church office (724-7151), 764-2584 or 722-1328.

The festival will culminate with an outdoor gospel concert consisting of choirs from neighboring churches and Hanes Memorial's own H.M.C. Chorale and the Mack Gallman Youth Choir.

On June 13, at 10:55 a.m., Bishop Charles Lee Helton, presiding prelate for the Seventh Episcopal District, will deliver the morning sermon.

Immediately after morning worship, an old-fashion dinner and fellowship will be held on the church grounds.

St. John CME Church to hold pastoral appreciation services

Special to THE CHRONICLE

Join the boards and members of St. John Christian Methodist Episcopal Church for the third annual appreciation services for Pastor Bobby R. Best. Services will be held at the church, 650 NW Crawford Place, at 7 p.m. June 9-11 and at 4 p.m. June 13.

The speakers will be: June 9, the Rev. Robert Williams, Williams Memorial CME, High Point; June 10, the Rev. Calvin Smith, First Assembly of God, Winston-Salem; June 11, the Rev. Robert McGowen, Galilee Baptist Church, Winston-Salem; June 13, the Rev. Frank White, Young Missionary Temple CME, Raleigh.

Best was born again in 1967, preached his initial sermon in June 1980 and was ordained elder in 1988. He has been a pastor for 13 years, at four Christian Methodist Episcopal churches. He lives by Romans 1:16, 17: "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ; for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith."

Pastor Best and his wife, the former Jacqueline Howard, have two children, Brandon and Bridgette.
