its lead to 3-0 in the top of the second inning. Tyler Kearns drew a lead-off walk, advanced on Jason Trogden's single, moved to third on a passed ball and scored on a grounder back to the mound by Corey Embler.

Twin City finally got on the scoreboard in the bottom of the second. McCray reached safely when his hard grounder was mis-played by Archdale-Trinity's shortstop. McCray stole second, went to third on a wild pitch and scored on Clay Bryant's grounder to second base to make the score 3-1.

Neither team scored in the third inning, but Archdale-Trinity added another run in the top of the fourth. Kearns reached on a walk, advanced on Trogden's single and scored on Embler's grounder.

Twin City came back with a run of its own in the bottom half of the inning. McCray helped his own cause by drilling a one-out single. Reserve Darrell Crockett's double to center scored McCray to make the score 4-2.

McCray then held Archdale-Trinity scoreless in the fifth, setting its batters down in order. Twin City rallied for three runs in its turn at bat to take its first lead of the game. McCray came through again for Twin City, driving in all three runs. Reserves Gene Lawson and Sherrod Nickels reached on walks before Mike Parker drew a walk to load the bases. McCray then drilled his single to right field to clear the bases.

After going on top, McCray

sat down the first two batters in the top of the sixth before Daniel Bowden reached on an error to second base. McCray then got Kearns to hit a grounder to the mound to end the game.

"Winning that first one was important," Williams said. "That gave the kids some confidence. Now we just have to bounce back and play. I have faith in them and believe we'll be fine."

health on and off the golf course. Wear a long-bill cap or straw hat. Wear light-colored clothing, which reflects the heat. Dark colors absorb the heat and cause body temperatures to increase. Drink plenty of water before, during and after you play.

Health professionals advise that when you feel thirsty you are already dehydrating. Carry a thermos or container of water and use it often. Have a wet towel with you on the course. Wipe off often. It can be quite refreshing. Apply sunscreen to all exposed areas of the body. It's recommended that sunscreens with at least an SPF of 15 be used. Skin cancer does not discriminate. Diet is important. Eat properly, especially fruits, vegetables and juices. If you begin to feel sick and/or dizzy, head for the clubhouse and home. There is also nothing wrong with playing only nine holes when the temperature get in the 80s or 90s and the humidity is high. Bottom line is, do the right thing, and take care of yourself.

It has been reported that Lester "Fats" Carpenter got his nickname years ago for obvious reasons. However, it needs to be pointed out that "Fats" isn't fat anymore. Richard "Eagle Eye" Thomas got his "handle" when he was a caddy. Seems as though "Eagle Eye" rarely lost the path of even a misdirected golf shot. By the way, "Fats" doesn't hit many "fat" shots these days, and "Eagle Eye" doesn't have to use the eye to find very many of his golf balls. They both can play this game. Until next time, keep it in the fairway.

there and playing ball," Mitchell said. "We got behind, but they never gave up. That was the key for us, not giving up."

Things looked bleak for Twin City early. Derrick Wardlow, the team's ace, got through the first inning easily, but struggled through the second inning. Walkertown pushed across three runs to take a 3-0 lead.

Twin City finally got on the scoreboard in the third inning. Michael Cook drew a walk and advanced on Thompson's single. Two outs later Cook scored on Carl Shepherd's infield single.

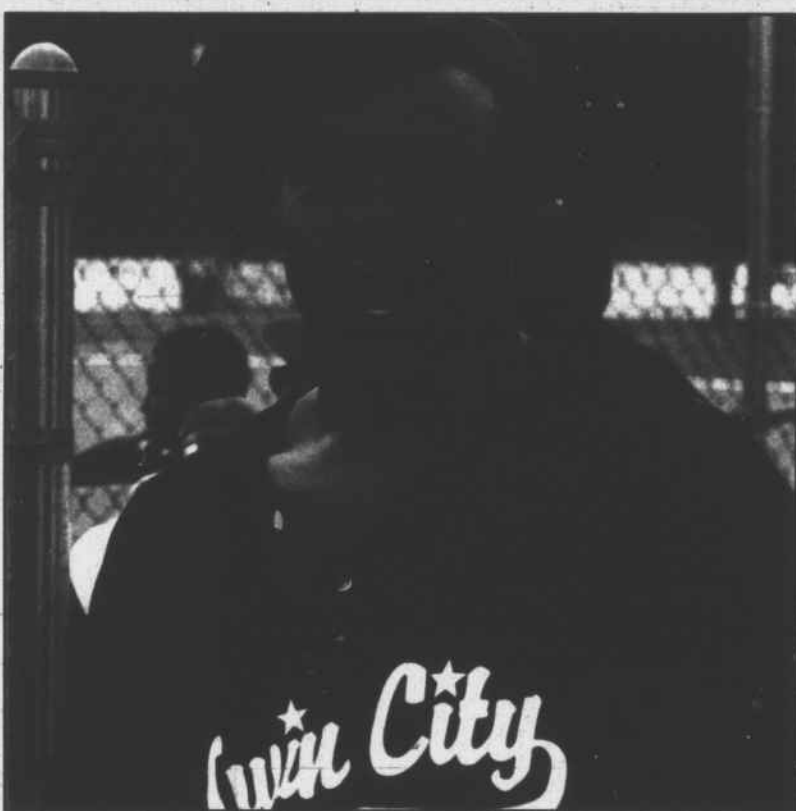

Wardlow continued to struggle in the third inning with his control and was replaced on the mound by Thompson, who settled into a groove to help Twin City get out of the inning. It didn't come until after Walkertown had pushed across two more runs to make the score 5-1.

With one out in the bottom of the third, Twin City finally began to make headway. Chris Carter got things started with a single. Steven McCall drew a walk and both runners advanced on a wild pitch. After a strike-out, Thompson drilled a long single to right field to score Carter and McCall to close the gap to 5-3.

Thompson set down Walkertown in the fourth, allowing only a walk. However, Walkertown reached him early and often in the fifth, giving up three quick runs. Mitchell went to Key, who had been playing shortstop, to silence Walkertown's bats. Key worked his way out of the inning, and Twin City trailed by an 8-3 deficit.

Michael Thompson's lead-off walk in the bottom half of the inning helped Twin City get its offense untracked again. Shepherd followed with a walk and both advanced on a balk. Barkley knocked in Thompson with a single but was thrown out at the plate as he tried to score on Wardlow's double to right field, which scored Shepherd to make the score 8-5. Twin City looked like it might pull closer, but Wardlow was caught in a run-down to end the inning after McCall drew another walk.

After holding Walkertown scoreless in the sixth, Twin City came back with a run to close the lead to 8-6. Arthur Thompson drilled a one-out single, advanced on Michael Thompson's single and scored on Carl Shepherd's single.

Twin City got a lot of help from Walkertown in the decisive seventh inning. Wardlow struck out to lead off the inning but was able to reach base safely when the Walkertown catcher missed the ball. Robert Carpenter hit a fly to right for the first out of the inning. McCall kept Twin City alive with a single, and Wardlow scored on Lonnie Wellman's sacrifice fly to right field. Arthur Thompson then recorded his fourth hit of the day, a single to knock in McCall. Thompson moved around on a wild pitch and then scored on Key's hit.

"It was a good day for me," said Key, who was credited with the win on the mound. "I was glad to get the chance to come in and pitch. We started off a little shaky, but we pulled it together good enough to win."

and gave up only three hits. He struck out seven and walked three Twin City batters.

"What can you say?" Rice asked. "Our balls were hit hard, but right to them and they made plays. They came through with some clutch hits, but our defense hurt us. A lot of the errors we made were mental. Baseball isn't a game where you can just go out there and believe you can win by outplaying people. A thinking team will beat you every time.

"The thing that hurt us the most was inconsistency," Rice added. "When we got people on base we couldn't get a hit. We have to take this game and learn from it. But I'm proud of the players and the coaches."
