TORCH BEARER NOMINATIONS

DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO HAS CARRIED THE TORCH FOR OUR COMMUNITY? LET US KNOW ABOUT THEM!!

Since 1974, THE CHRONICLE carried the torch for African-American issues. And, we couldn't have done it without your support.

Help us celebrate the past and look to the future as we build towards an exciting 25th Anniversary Celebration at Rupert Bell Park on August 28th.

Help us find what we call "Torch Bearers." Who are they? Everyday people just like you, but with that special something that has helped keep our dreams alive.

People who have made lasting contributions to our community, and not just in big ways.

Each person nominated will be considered by our editorial staff. The winners will be recognized in articles in The Chronicle's Special Anniversary Edition.

Also, a luminary in honor of each winner will be lighted at The Chronicle's 25th Anniversary Celebration at Rupert Bell Park.

Please help us kick off our 25th Anniversary/Family Day Celebration in a big way by nominating your choice for "Torch Bearer."

Enter Your Nominations Today

Using the space below, please list important information about the person you wish to nominate as a torch bearer. Remember! We are looking for all types of individuals whom you believe have made lasting contributions within the last 25 years to our community, either in big ways or in small (but important) ways. You may nominate persons living or deceased, although those who have passed away will only receive special recognition at our 25th Anniversary Celebration.

Thank You!
