Catholic Social Services will dedicate expanded facilities

Special to THE CHRONICLE

Catholic Social Services will have a dedication and open house of its expanded facilities at 627 W. Second St. in Winston-Salem on Sunday from 4:30 to 7 p.m.

Bishop William Curlin will lead the dedication and blessing of the facility from 4:45 to 5:30 p.m. followed by program tours and refreshments from 5:30 to 7 p.m.

The new facility is next to the present two buildings that house programs for the Triad area via Hand to Hand, Host Homes, Casa Guadalupe, Adoption Services and Core Services.

The new facility was an existing home built in 1917. In 1924 a middle story was inserted between the ground floor and the existing second story. The historic building was completely outfitted under the direction of Dick Egloff of Egloff Building Co. Inc. Most of the work was completed by a father and son team (Anton and Martin Bevis) that moved to the Triad area from England. Major construction had to be completed by jacking up and leveling the foundation, new walls, flooring, HVAC and electrical. Numerous companies from the Triad area donated either the time of their personnel, monies or furniture.

A series of major capital campaigns were put together, and more than $300,000 was raised by the Triad community to pay for the building and complete the renovations.

Catholic Social Services provides services to more than 1,500 individuals and families in the Triad community, regardless of religious affiliations.
