

Special Recognition Award Winners

Garland Scarsboro of Food Lion presents Special Recognition Awards to Leon Hargrave, president of the Lexington NAACP, and Cheryl Stewart.

The Lexington NAACP was honored for its efforts in getting a Martin Luther King Jr. holiday passed in Davidson County.

Stewart is a community leader in the Maryland Apartments neighborhood.

Alderman Fred Terry is presented his Special Recognition Award by Jodria Bufford of BB&T.

Terry was honored for his work in his Southeast Ward, the most racially diverse ward in the city.

Charlene Curtis, the head coach of the women's basketball team at Wake Forest University, is presented her award by Sam Davis, The Chronicle's sports editor.

Curtis is one of a very few black head coaches at a top division school such as WFU.
