Community Calendar

May 24

Volunteers needed for Project Graduation

Wanted: volunteers! Project Graduation is a drug- and alcohol-free event for graduating seniors. The event is always fun and exciting, and we need your help to make it a huge success. Project Graduation will be held May 24 at the Millennium Cen-

If you are willing to give a few hours of your time or want more information, call Tom Boone at The Coalition for Drug Abuse Prevention at 759-7500.

June 1

Fashion Extravaganza will be held

The Chi Chi Chapter of Chi Eta Phi Nursing Sorority Inc. and Chi Chi Beta of Winston-Salem State University will present a Fashion Extravaganza on June 1 from 8-11 p.m. at the Anderson Center Dillard Auditorium at Winston-Salem State University. It will feature Uniqueness Unlimited Modeling Production of Lexington. Ky. For ticket information call (336) 595-3227, (336) 760-8775 or (336) 767-6351.

Group will hold gospel singing

Pride of Yadkinites Chapter 612 of Yadkinville will have a gospel singing at Pleasant Grove Baptist Church. The program will be held June 8 at 6 p.m. This program is for Anita Smyre, our own OES queen-

June 12

Society will give talk

Charles Farlow, secretary of Stokes Historical Society, will speak on "Wilson Farlow House in Danbury" on June 12 at 7 p.m. at the monthly meeting of the Forsyth County Genealogical Society. The meeting will be at Main Library, 660 W. Fifth Street in Winston-Salem, at 7

Sertoma 4-H Center will hold day camp for kids 5-12 June 10 through Aug. 2

Sertoma 4-H Center, border ing Hanging Rock State Park, invites youths in and around Stokes County aged 5-12 to attend day camp every week from June 10 to Aug. 2. Campers will enjoy traditional camp activities such as arts and crafts, dance lessons and swimming lessons as well as new such as financial literacy. nutrition and creative writing. The tuition of $110 a week includes lunch and a snack. Parents need to drop off their kids between 7:30 and 8 a.m. and them up from 5:30 to 6 p.m. Registration is available on a first-come, first-served basis by calling (336) 593-3210 or visiting www.campsertoma.org.

Search under way for members of 1971 Junior Class of

Atkins Senior High School
The 1971 Junior Class of Atkins Senior High School is planning an Atkins 1972 "Class That Never Was" Reunion for Aug. 2-4. All classmates are asked to call (336) 767-8894 or (336) 764-8477.

East Winston Primary School enrolling for summer sessions

Winston Secretary of Stokes Historical School is enrolling for summer 12). Enrichment activities, fun, music, games, field trips, bowling, skating, swimming, movies, etc. are planned. For more information, call 725-

Seeking volunteer assistance? If your group is seeking vol-unteer assistance for a one-day, nonprofit, community-related event, requests may be made in writing. Include organization's name, address, contact person and phone number, type of event, time, date, expected num-ber attending and type of help needed. Mail to: Sisters of Bivouac Chapter 530, Order of the Eastern Star, PHA, Attn.: Program Committee, P.O. Box 4652, Winston-Salem, NC 27115-4652

Hospice needs volunteers

Hospice welcomes volun-teers. Opportunities are available to work with our agency in a number of ways, including: as patient-family volunteers, who run errands or stay with patients so care-givers can get away for a few hours; as bereavement vol-unteers, who offer their support to families whose loved ones unteers - clergy or lay people -who visit with patients and their families, providing a special support system; as volunteers at the Kate B. Reynolds Hospice Home, who are there on a daily basis, providing a support sys-tem for parents and their families as well as Hospice staff; as office volunteers, who help with day-to-day activities: Carousel group volunteers, who help by working as grief group facilitators as well as assisting with monthly orientations, grief education workshops and dayto-day activities; as Camp Carousel volunteers, who assist with a weekend camp for children and adults who have experienced the deaths of loved ones; and as Hospice Hands volunteers, who help by speaking to area groups, baking special treats, helping with odd jobs and repair work, assisting with bingo, helping with children's support programs, coordinating special events and working with annual programs such as Light Up a Life, the Memorial Tree, Hospice Sabbath and Hospice

Hunter presented with Outstanding Volunteer Award

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Winston-Salem resident Johnell Hunter was recently presented with the Outstanding Volunteer Award in Community Resource Development for 2001 by the N.C. Cooperative Extension Service in Forsyth County

State Rep. Larry Womble, resented the award to Hunter. Womble described Hunter as a dedicated and sincere volunteer of Cooperative Extension and its programs.

As the organizational leader of the Bless The Children 4-H Club, Hunter has involved more than 30 youths from Hispanic, black and white communities. In addition, as an active volunteer in the Winston Grows urban gardening project, Hunter has established more than 15 raised bed gardens for youths

Hunter

Graham Avenue and

Mineral Springs Elementary School Hunter was also cited for his efforts to market the Forsyth 4-H youth development program.

The Chronicle's e-mail address is: news@wschronicle.com

Melody R. Hairston earns law degree

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Melody Rochelle Hairston received a juris doctorate in law during the May 11 gradu-ation at N.C. Central University School of Law.

Hairston graduated with the Class of 2000 from Wake Forest University and is a 1996 graduate of South Stokes High School. She is the

and Mrs. Edward E. (Mari-Ander on) of Walnut Cove.

Report

likely as those with higher incomes to have fair or poor health status (23 percent and 10 percent, respectively) and conditions that limit activity (19 percent and 9 percent). Low-income women were at considerably higher risk for experiencing health problems in their older years, when the combination of increasing age and economic hardship take their toll. Among low-income women aged 45 to 64, 49 percent reported arthritis, 41 percent had hypertension and 32 percent had mental health concerns such as anxiety and depression.

· One in five women aged 18 to 64 was uninsured, with the risk of being uninsured falling disproportionately on women with limited incomes; one-third of lowincome women lacked health insurance coverage.

· Low-income women were

· Low start-up cost

Time: 7:00 p.m.

· Remarkable products

· Work Full or Part-time

· How to build residual income

Date: Tuesday, May 28, 2002

Telephone: (336) 661-1661

disproportionately affected by plan refusal to pay for services and were twice as likely as higher-income women not to obtain the treatment they thought they needed (33 percent vs. 15 per-

Latinas and uninsured women, both groups at higher risk for experiencing access problems and barriers to care, were the least likely to have had a doctor visit in the past year (31 percent and 24 percent, respectively). Women on Medicaid or who were uninsured (about one in four each) as well as African-American women (27 percent) and Latinas (38 percent) were screening tests.

more likely to rely on hospital clinics and health centers for medical care than other women. · Uninsured women and, to a somewhat lesser extent, women on Medicaid, were consistently less likely than women with private coverage to obtain many of the recommended preventive

Without MVP Card 6/$2.62

Buy One, Get One

Without MVP Card $5.99 Each

Breyers ce Cream Without MVP Card $4.89 Each

56-64 Ounce

Select Varieties

BREYERS

Buy One, Get One Lay's Potato MVP Chips Without MVP Card $2.99 Each

Hot or 24 Pc. Fried Chicke Without MVP Card $13,99 50 Count Hefty Foam Plates Buy One, Get One MVP

We reserve the right to limit quantities and correct typographical and photographic errors.

Saving you time & money is our business. What you do with the savings is yours.

Without MVP Card $1.99 Each

and ask for Frankie, Cal or Lisa. Don't miss this life changing business opportunity!

Start Your Own Business

From the comfort of your own home!!!!!!!!

FREE SEMINAR

Build monthly income of $500-$5,000

Guest Speaker Janet Jones, RN will be on hand to explain how she developed a $13,000.00 per month income within one year.

Location: Comfort Inn (Akron Drive)

Call for more information or to make a reservation contact (336) 661-1661