Genice Alexis Lane is Little Miss Theta Mu Sigma

Genice Lane

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

On June 29, Genice A. Lane was crowned Little Miss Theta Mu Sigma of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority Inc.

The celebration of Genice's crowning took place at I-Hop restaurant on Peters Creek Parkway at 7 p.m., where a short program was given in honor of Genice's victory.

The program participants were Evelyn Sanders, who gave the welcome and purpose; soror Suzette Thaxton Wilson, who read Scripture; soror Jacqueline Lane, who led prayer; soror Lisa Allen, who presented the special program participants; and soror Pamela Edgerton, who gave sorority highlights.

Genice treated the audience to a special dance, and Jasmine Stinson received applause from the guests for his poem. Nia Franklin, a friend of the honored guest, truly held the audience's attention with her solo.

Genice, her parents and sorority members thanked the guests in attendance on June 29 and all those who supported the contestants and the chapter.

North Carolina's National College Savings Program

Before you know it, your child will be ready for college. But will you be ready? Now there's a new 529 plan that can help your family save for education expenses — North Carolina's National College Savings Program.

North Carolina's National College Savings Program is:

Accessible. Anyone — parents, grandparents, friends, even an organization — can save toward the college education of someone they care about. And the beneficiary can be any age, from a newborn to an adult. You can even open an account for yourself if college is in your future.

Affordable. You decide how much to contribute and when. Make lump-sum contributions whenever you want or set up a monthly draft.

Comprehensive. Choose from a variety of investment options, from conservative to more aggressive.

Tax free. Account earnings are free from federal and North Carolina income taxes when the money is used to pay for qualified education expenses.

Flexible. Use the money to pay expenses at any college anywhere in the country.

Nationally recognized. The National College Savings Program has received the highest possible rating from "Savingforcollege.com," a leading rating service for state 529 plans.

More information on North Carolina's National College Savings Program is available through College Foundation of North Carolina. Call us toll-free or visit our website today to get details and enrollment forms.

A moment of your time now could make all the difference in your child's future.
