

Barnett receives recognition

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Carrie Barnett was one of the individuals who received tribute at the "Women With a Mission" Awards Luncheon Oct. 19 at Mt. Zion Baptist Church, where Dr. Serenus T. Churn Sr. is pastor.

Barnett serves as an usher at Mt. Zion and is the personification of the scriptural words: "I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of the Lord." For more than 60 years she has been a model of that Scripture. Barnett has been a faithful member of Queens of Olympic Chapter 620, Order of the Eastern Star, and has been awarded an honorary Past Matron's Degree.

Sarah L. Barge, worthy matron of Queens of Olympic Chapter 620, attended the banquet in support of Barnett.

Galilee Missionary Baptist recognizes seniors, retirees

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Galilee Missionary Baptist Church observed Seniors and Retirees Day Nov. 10 at the 10:30 a.m. worship service. The purpose of the recognition day was to acknowledge the seniors and retirees in the congregation for their dedication and service to the church.

They sat in a body, and each was dressed in black and gold attire. Each was presented a corsage or boutonniere.

Sara Barge, Special Events Ministry Seniors Committee chairperson, coordinates senior activities.

Seniors 80 years of age and older who are able to attend worship services were picked up for the service in a limousine courtesy of Hooper's Funeral Home. Nonagenarians (people in their 90s) of Galilee include Zula Barker, Pearl Byrd, Ora Mae Rich, Ellabelle Howard and Castella McCloud.

Octogenarians (people in their 80s) include: Joe Austin, Geneva Oglesby, Mack Jones, James Cauthen, Lanie Gary, Hattie Stover, Louise Burns, Amie Robinson, Lena Hayne, Rozell Collins, Johnny Kennedy, Deacon Walter Washington, Sarah Hart, Jessie Neal, Deaconess Mary Strong, Erskine Wallace, Beatrice Banks, John Whitener, Odessa Woodruff, Allie Singletary, Marie Royal and David Johnson.

Retirees and other seniors 65 years of age and older completed the group honored at the service. The seniors have attended plays and banquets; taken a train ride to Raleigh; attended the Barn Dinner Theatre, Black Repertory Theatre, First Assembly Church plays; and have been on mountain excursions and other outings.

Galilee is at 575 Martin Luther King Jr. Drive. Robert McGowens is the pastor and is very involved and committed to the Seniors Ministry at Galilee.
