

14th Anniversary
National Black Theatre Festival

August 4-9, 2003

Winston-Salem, NC

Larry Leon Hamlin
 Festival and Artistic Director

14th Anniversary National Black Theatre Festival
 An International Celebration & Reunion of Spirit for the Entire Family

The Marvtastic Society invite all of Winston-Salem to attend the electrifying opening night Gala Awards Banquet of the 2003 National Black Theatre Festival August 4 at 5:30 p.m. at the M.C. Benton Convention Center.

The full evening package consist of a sit down dinner with over 50 celebrities of television, film, and stage including Diahann Carroll, Ben Vereen, Malcolm-Jamal Warner, Kim Fields and Melba Moore.

A dynamic and rocking performance by Broadway Diva, Lillias White in "From Brooklyn to Broadway II" at the Steven's Center. Top off the evening with a marvtastic celebrity reception at the Adam's Mark Hotel and dancing in the street to African Drums until 3 o'clock in the morning.

Full evening package is $200 per person or a table of ten for $2,000. Call the National Black Theatre Box Office at (336) 723-7907.