Choir celebratory concert planned

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

On Sunday, July 15, the Inspirational Choir of Mount Zion Baptist Church, under the direction of Mr. Dionn Owen, will celebrate 30 years of ministry in music. The Theme, "...Come Too Far to Turn Around!" is the Choir's personal testimony.

In July of 1977, 30 charter members, with a burning desire to worship the Lord in song, stepped out on faith to see what the end would be. Today, the choir reap the harvest of seeds sown 30 years ago.

God continues to bless the choir with a bounty of talented directors, musicians, and vocalists; each bringing their God-given talent and commitment to His service. Past directors such as Graham Fletcher, Edward Patterson, Dyna McGriff and Belinda Daniels, have left their mark on the choir. The present musicians are Kevin Scott, pianist, Robert Grier, bassist, Brandon Jenkins, organist and Melvin Johnson, percussionist.

The Mount Zion Inspirational Reunion Choir, consisting of current and former members, will present a repertoire of songs from the choir's 30-year history. In addition to old favorites, the service will include songs from the not too distant past including a moving tribute to the deceased choir members set to a song written by the choir's first director, Graham Fletcher.

The Anniversary Celebration is open to the public. It starts at 4 p.m. Via song, spoken word and dance, the Praise Dance ministry will conduct Praise & Worship beginning at 3:30 p.m.

Mount Zion Baptist Church is located at 950 File St. Dr. Serenus T. Churn Sr. is the pastor, and Sharon Buford is the Inspirational Choir president.
