

It's already been a busy, productive year for Omegas

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The Winston-Salem Psi Phi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc., ended one of its most successful and industrious years ever on June 11.

The chapter's accomplishments included a very well attended Achievement Week ceremony at SciWorks Science Center; a Talent Hunt program that yielded the Sixth District Talent Hunt Winner, Kyle Walker; and an outstanding Mardi Gras event that received rave reviews throughout the Triad. The Brothers also awarded five $1,000 scholarships to local graduating high school seniors.

Brothers Kenneth Rocker and Emory Jones were recognized for their volunteer efforts at Latham Elementary School, in addition Brothers Ralph Latta, Keith Vereen and Marcus Lilly participated in the fraternity's Assault on Illiteracy effort at Latham.

The chapter also managed to induct six new members into the fold of Omega. The "Sensational Six" crossed the burning sands on Saturday,

Brothers James Franklin Jr., from left, I. Wayne Hosch, Eddie M. Bines, Bobby Collins, George Redd IV and Donald Petree.

May 31 in a ceremony befitting true Omega Brotherhood. The new members are Brothers James Franklin Jr., I.

Wayne Hosch, Eddie M. Bines, Bobby Collins, George Redd IV and Donald Petree. Their induction coincides with the installation of new officers who will begin their term of service to the chapter in August. Brother John Card will be the new Basileus; Brother Emory Jones is Vice-Basileus; Brother James Singletary is the Keeper of Records and Seal; Brother Keith Vereen is the Assistant KRS; Brother Clark Hanner is the Keeper of Finance; Brother Donnie Holt is the Assistant KF; Brother Donald Spencer is Chaplain; Brother Billy Friende is Parliamentarian; and Brother Kenneth Francis is Keeper of Peace.

This month, the fraternity will celebrate their 75th Grand Conclave in Birmingham, Ala. Several members from Psi Phi Chapter will be in attendance for this monumental occasion. Some Brothers will be recognized for their years of dedication and service to the fraternity. Upon their return, they will begin preparations to take 10 young men from Forsyth County to the Sixth District Omega Boys Camp at Camp Hanes in King. This program has been made possible in part from community support of the chapter's mandated programs. The chapter is giving special thanks to every business and individual that supported Psi Phi Chapter this year.

Happy Hill Reunion will celebrate Anderson High

Annual event is this weekend

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The William C. Sims, Sr. Recreation Center will present the 15th Annual Happy Hill Community Reunion on July 11 at 7 p.m. at the Sims Recreation Center, and on July 12 from 11:30 a.m.- 6 p.m. in Happy Hill Park.

The Friday night (July 11) program will honor the 1962-67 State Football Champions and cheerleaders from Anderson Senior High School. Anderson coaches will be honored as well, and even the deceased players and cheerleaders will also be honored with a candlelight vigil.

"We are looking for Anderson Bulldogs students, teachers, principals and guidance counselors to attend this program on Friday night," said Ben Piggott and William "Rock" Biting, organizers of the Happy Hill Reunion program.

On July 12 at 11:30 a.m., the reunion will start off with a community vigil, a Balloon Lift for Peace, and a Libation Ceremony with members of the Liberian Association of the Piedmont. The community picnic will start at 12:30 p.m. Attendees are asked to bring their own lawn chairs and picnic baskets to share with family and friends.

This year's program will feature Bless the Children, the Boss Drummers, 'Gerald the Pearl,' Cedric Moser, Grey "Catman" Good, the Essence Dancers, Kinfolk of Mine, the Fruit of Islam, Tim Smith, Marc Worthy, Carolyn G. Hill, the New Jerusalem Baptist Church Male Chorus, the Atkins High School Drumline and Dancers, Charli Madison, Mozell Duncan, Mrs. Ebony's Dance Group, Carlotta Samuel Fleming, artists from Bone Park Records (Raster and Alert) and the show stopping group, New Deminon, featuring Cleo Young.

There will be a youth talent show featuring MC Cedric Moser, Cleo Young and Jonell Hunter. The horseshoe tournament, softball game, bingo games (for prizes) and free swimming are sponsored by the Winston-Salem Recreation and Parks Department.

On July 12 at 11 a.m., the Happy Hill Reunion crowd will worship with Pastor Norman R. Carter Sr. at the Highway and Hedges Praise and Worship Outreach Ministries. Organizers Piggott and Biting are patiently waiting to see what t-shirt designer Kayyum Allah will create for the 2008 15th Annual Happy Hill Reunion.

Everyone is invited to attend. For more information, contact Ben Piggott at 336-727-2837 or William "Rock" Biting at 336-784-8475.

Rock Biting and Ben Piggott, right, stand with William Butler and Lynn Biting, members of Anderson's 1962 championship-winning football team.

Far left: Members of Mrs. Ebony's Dance Group will perform.

10$10 FOR 10

SUPER SALE THIS WEEK

dozens of items priced 10 for $10!

Prices Good: JULY 2008
Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat	Sun
		9	10	11	12
13	14	15

visit www.lowesfoods.com

We welcome your calls on our toll-free Customer Hotline: 1 (888) 537-8646 or on the internet at wecare@lowesfoods.com