

National beauty group to gather here

N.C. Supreme Court justice will be on hand

CHRONICLE STAFF REPORT

The National Beauty Culturists' League Inc., (NBCL) will host its 89th Convention Institute and Trade show in Winston-Salem from July 19-26 at the downtown Marriott Hotel.

North Carolina Supreme Court Justice Patricia Timmons-Goodson will give the keynote address Friday, July 25 at the event's awards banquet.

NBCL's is one of the world's oldest and most respected organizations of cosmetologists and beauty professionals. The organization has more than 8,000 members, 42 state chapters and international affiliates in the Caribbean, Canada, Germany, France, England and Africa.

A full slate of activities and events are planned for the week,

File Photo

Timmons-Goodson is the state's first black female justice.

including the Sigma Nu Theta Fraternity Masquerade Ball on July 22 at 8 p.m.; a hair show on July 23 at 7 p.m. and a graduation ceremony, featuring Dudley Inc.'s Dr. Eunice Dudley, on Saturday, July 26 at 9 a.m.

Nealy every event is slated to take place in or around the Marriott. The banquet that will feature Timmons-Goodson will be in the hotel's Grand Ball Room.

The product of a military family, Justice Timmons-Goodson learned leadership and service the "Army Way." Appointed to the Supreme Court in February 2006, Justice Timmons-Goodson is only the fourth woman and the first African-American woman to sit on North Carolina's highest court. Tickets to the banquet are $75.

For tickets or further information about the week of events, contact Minnie Ervin at 336-724-7806 or 336-722-0562.

Photo by Maxim Photography

Pamela Dianne Glenn and Louis Edward Gilmore Jr.

GLENN AND GILMORE UNITED IN MARRIAGE

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Pamela Dianne Glenn of Winston-Salem and Louis Edward Gilmore Jr., of Richmond, Va., were married May 31, 2008 in Winston-Salem at Hope of Glory Fellowship Church, where the Rev. Helen S. Glenn is pastor.

Glenn is the daughter of Deacon and Reverend Mrs. William B. Glenn of Walkertown, and the mother of one son, Kristopher B. Glenn of Lexington. She is a graduate of Winston-Salem State University, N.C. A&T State University, High Point College and Appalachian State University. She is a case manager/special education teacher for the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County School System.

Gilmore is the son of Louis E. Gilmore Sr., and the late Estelle Gilmore of Southern Pines. He is the father of one son, Jonathan Gilmore of Columbus, Ohio. Gilmore is a graduate of N.C. A&T State University and served as a captain in the U.S. Army. He is employed by the U.S. Postal Service.

The wedding party consisted of Bridesmaid Angie Glenn of Winton-Salem and Best Man Jonathan Gilmore. Apostle Thomas-Macon, of Established Heart Ministries of Charlotte, officiated the nuptials. Musical and vocal accompaniment was supplied by Kristopher Glenn. The reception was held at the Hope of Glory Fellowship Church. The happy couple honeymooned in the Bahamas.

Owens

Pankey

Johnson

Dalton-Rann

Wright

Sam Puryear

National Association of University Women conference kicks off Monday

Members from across the nation will be in Winston-Salem

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The 66th National Convention of the National Association of University Women (NAUW) will be held in Winston-Salem July 21-28.

The organization was founded in 1910 in Washington, D.C. and focuses on education, scholarship, literacy and national and international affairs. There are 77 branches throughout the nation and many members will be in attendance at the convention.

The public is invited to a public meeting on Tuesday, July 22 at 7 p.m. in the Gaines Ballroom of the Embassy Suites Hotel on Cherry Street, where Henry Pankey, an assistant principal at Parkland High School, will be the keynote speaker. Two prestigious awards will also be presented. ReVonda Dalton-Rann, executive assistant to the chancellor of Winston-Salem State University, will receive the Community Service Award, which will be presented to her by WSSU Chancellor-Donald Julian Reeves. The Excellence in Education Award will be presented to retired principal Samuel Puryear by Barbara Puryear. Youth performers Courtney Kelly and Quayshan Hall of Parkland High School; Kelly Harriett, a creative dancer; and the Friendship Baptist Church Praise Dancers will perform at the public meeting.

Ollie D. Johnson, of Lake Charles, La., is the organization's national president. She is a member of the Beauregard-Vernon Branch.

The first vice president is Evelyn Wright of Culver City, Calif. (Culver City Branch); the second vice president is Dolores Owens of Pennsauken, N.J. (member of the Philadelphia Branch). Owens is also the national convention chairperson. The host city chairperson is Doris Herrell, and Mildred Griffin is the host chapter president.

Several members from the local area have prominent positions within the NAUW. National Recording Secretary Linda Jones hails from Columbia, S.C.; National Parliamentarian Joyce McDow is from Laurinburg; National Historian Latisa Vereen lives in Clayton; National Protocol Chair Anne McNair is from Laurinburg as well; Sectional Director Bobbie J. Little is from Hamlet; and Sectional Lay Member Jacquelyn Moore lives in Halifax, Va.

Among the special events that will take place during the convention is a visit NAUW members will make to Brenner Children's Hospital, where they will donate several handmade quilts.

Erica Chin

Student accepted to N.Y.S.P

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Erica Chin, of Kernersville, has been selected to attend National Young Scholars Program (N.Y.S.P) summer program at Wake Forest University to study The Human Body.

The rising fifth grader at Moore Magnet School is in the school's Academically Gifted Program (AG).

Erica is also an accomplished student in visual arts, piano and guitar.

2.49 pound with card

bottom round roast or steaks
boneless beef

save up to $1.80 lb

49 lb with card

chicken leg quarters

save $4.00 bag

Lowes foods good for you.

sold in 10 lb bags for $4.90

limit 2 per customer with additional $10.00 purchase

2 for $5 with card

Florida's Natural orange juice
59 - 64 oz

50% off with card

jumbo vidalia onions
product of USA regular price $1.29 lb YOU PAY 64¢ lb

buy one, get one free with card

General Mills cereal honey nut cheerios 12.25 oz, cheerios oat cluster crunch 11.3 oz., cocoa puffs 11.8 oz, trix 10.7 oz or golden grahams 12 oz

9.99 each

Bud, Miller or Coors
18 pack 12 oz cans where available