

Locals read a litany of peace during the 2006 event.

Peace Day events slated to start Friday

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Winston-Salem will again take part in the observance of the International Day of Peace. Events sponsored by Triad Interfaith Peace Witness will be Sept. 19-21, starting with a civic observance on the steps of Winston-Salem's City Hall starting at 11:45 a.m.

After a Moment of Silence, Mayor Pro Tempore Vivian Burke is expected to read a Peace Proclamation from the City Council. Local youth choirs will also sing songs of peace.

Later on Friday, a Peace Booth will be set up at Rock the Block on 4th Street from 6 to 11 p.m. Booth volunteers will offer desktop peace pole kits to donors who contribute to a fund for a permanent peace installation in the city.

The booth will also feature a full-size eight-foot peace pole with the message "May Peace Prevail on Earth" in several languages. People can attach notes to the pole with their own messages of peace.

On Saturday, September 20, the public is invited to hear storytelling and create fabric flowers at the Downtown Arts District Association (DADA) Community Center, 526 North Liberty St., from 2-4:30 p.m.

On Sunday, Sept. 21, a Community Celebration of Hope and Peace; An Interfaith Service at Winston-Salem Friends' Meeting, 3151 Reynolda Road, will close out the events. People from different faith traditions will offer prayers and meditations for peace. Those assembled will join in song and hear readings by men, women, and children from various congregations and have the opportunity to spontaneously voice their own thoughts.

The United Nations' International Day of Peace and Global Ceasefire was

Members of the Class of '58.

Carver class celebrates its 50th reunion during roundup

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The Carver High School Alumni Association sponsored its annual roundup, Aug. 18-23, with a variety of activities, including a picnic, community day cook-out and a banquet at the Hawthorne Inn.

The honorary class this year celebrating their 50th Anniversary was the Class of 1958. Helen Horton was the class president.

Others members of the class in attendance were: Roger Bailey, Mattie Fowler, Rainey Chandler, Nathaniel Norwood, Phyllis McNeil, Gwendolyn Bell, Carl Jarrett, Thomas Smith, Edward Lash, Hubert Lash, James Johnson, Eugene Weeks, Barbara West, Marie Baskins, Rose Preston, Donna Golden, Mary Williams, Gail Jones, Barbara Miles, Barbara Miller, Juanita Richardson, Annie Clinton, Henry Watson, James Bowman, Garland Wallace, Felecia Lash, Warren Dobson, Floyd Jackson, Howard Alexander, Shirley White, James Hart, Carolyn Robinson, Jacqueline January, Betty Gregg and John Damon.

How do you become a nationally ranked hospital for Respiratory Disorders?

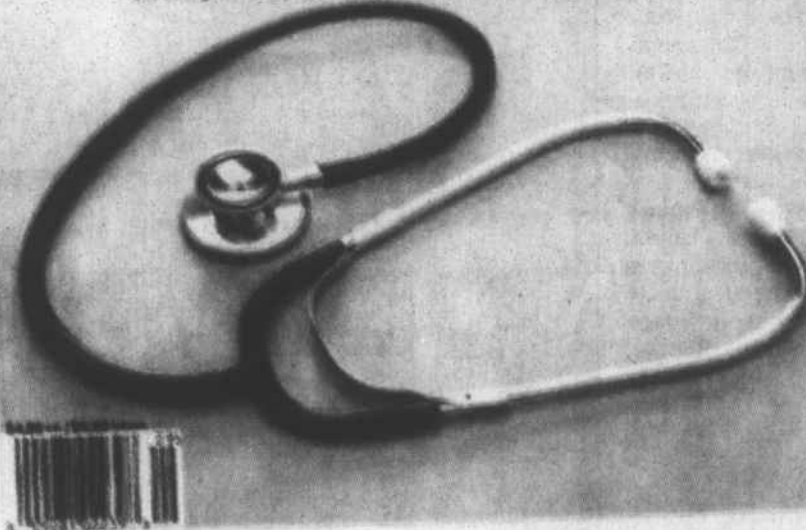

McCain, Obama, and Energy • Deadliest Afghan Warlords

U.S. News & World Report

AMERICA'S BEST HOSPITALS

EXCLUSIVE RANKINGS

The Top Care in 16 Specialties Including: Cancer • Heart • Orthopedics • Geriatrics • Urology
Plus: A Day in the Life of an ER Nurse

Knowledge makes all the difference.

Out of 5,400 hospitals nationwide, only 50 achieved the level of excellence to be ranked by U.S. News & World Report as America's Best Hospitals for treatment of respiratory disorders. And one of them is right here in western North Carolina: Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center. A number of factors have earned us the Top Hospitals distinction, including outstanding outcomes, national reputation among physicians, Nurse Magnet Award status for nursing excellence, advanced technology and patient services. Plus, we are on the leading edge of research to improve diagnosis and treatment of respiratory disorders, including the areas of pulmonary, critical care, allergy and immunologic diseases. That means more – and better – treatment options for you. When it comes to respiratory disorders, knowledge makes all the difference – yours and ours. Understand the difference that comes with being treated at one of America's best hospitals.

WE DON'T JUST PROVIDE FOOD FOR HOMELESS INDIVIDUALS AND FAMILIES.

WE PROVIDE JOB TRAINING AND PLACEMENT SO THEY CAN BUY GROCERIES.

Emergency Shelter
Educational Services
Job Training and Placement

Many homeless people today have the desire and ability to take care of themselves and their families. They just need some help.

Find out how you can support the programs that are working in our community. Contact Volunteers of America, today.

Volunteers of America

There are no limits to caring.
1-800-899-0089
www.VolunteersofAmerica.org

1.800.446.2255 | wfubmc.edu

Wake Forest University Baptist MEDICAL CENTER