

The cast of the skit.

Goler Metropolitan stages skit

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Goler Metropolitan A.M.E. Zion Church recently staged, "A Walk Through the New Testament: Whose Voice is it?"

This interesting biblical skit was written by Elder Daisy Chambers and presented Oct. 8 by the members of the noon Prayer Ministry.

Elder Chambers is a member of the Christian Church in Winston-Salem and a member of the National Global Ministers Board.

The actors who presented the play were: Goler Pastor Roy Swann as Jesus; Marie Matthews as Paul; Marthaniel Linton as Luke; William Knox as Matthew; Jason Wilson as Peter; Michael Myers as James; the Rev. Keith Davis as Mark and Elder Chambers as John and Jude.

Donna Cleadmore read the scripture from Hebrews I, while Rev. Davis prayed during the devotional. Other members acted as stage managers; dressers and the choir. They were: Margaret Linton, Charlie Lentz, Georgia Topping, Mabel K. Walker and Tony Cone.

L. B. Speas was the photographer. Dinner was prepared and served by Katie Boulware, Mary Lee Carter, Jason Wilson and Bernice Davenport. Jacqueline and Norman Dunlap took care of hospitality.

Bernice Davenport is in charge of music and different ministries for each Wednesday.

These ministers also served: Rev. Robert Bailey, Rev. Rockford Penn, Rev. William Speas, Rev. Pervis Morris; Rev. Ingrid Hackett, Rev. Frederick Barnes; Rev.

Pastor Swann

Elder Chambers

Debra Bradshaw, Rev. Clay Fulton; Rev. Joseph Nance, Sha Lai Williams; Beatrice Murray; Rev. Harry Reynolds; Rev. Alvin Damon, Rev. Robert Williams, Rev. James Gilliam, Rev. Terry Leak; Rev. Billy Speas, Rev. Richard Hickman, Rev.

Winnie Speas, Willa Reid; Rev. Jackie Phillips, Rev. Gregory Speas and Ms. Fulton.

For more information about the church, call 336-723-2654. The church is at 1435 Fourth Street and Dunleith Avenue.

The death of a loved one is enough of a burden without it becoming a financial one, too.

Plan ahead and save.

Piedmont Memorial Gardens

Peace of Mind • est. 1979

For more information contact:
(336) 788-4959

Food, Toy and Drug Recalls, Gas Prices, Home Foreclosures, Crime and Drugs, High Incarceration, Health Insurance, Health Care, College Tuition, Taxes, War, Liveable Wages, Job Layoffs, Campaign Finance Reform, Quality Schools, Mandatory Sentencing, Voting Rights, Death Penalty, Juvenile Justice, Environment, Hiring and Contracting.....

Got Questions? Get Answers!

Hear the Candidates in Their Own Words

2008 Candidate's Forum

6:00pm * Thursday * October 30, 2008

First Baptist Church
700 Highland Avenue
Winston-Salem, NC

For Questions or a Ride to Vote call 725-1024

Sponsored by the Voting Rights Coalition Partners: Winston-Salem Urban League, NAACP, Black Leadership Roundtable, Delta Sigma Theta, AKA LINKS and Connections, CHANGE, Sigma Gamma Rho, Darryl Hunt Project for Freedom and Justice, Democracy NC, the AME Zion Church & others.

Re-Elect
Wendell "Wes" Schollander
Forsyth Soil and Water Supervisor

I would appreciate your vote

"As your Soil and Water Supervisor I will continue to pursue my campaign for urban conservation projects and to improve your quality of life."

"Vote for the very last name on your ballot— just above the Referendum."

Paid for by Committee to Elect Schollander

SEEING OUR CITY The Art of Defining a Place

HOW DO YOU SEE WINSTON-SALEM? Seeing the City: Sloan's New York, on view at Reynolda House Museum of American Art October 4, 2008–January 4, 2009, defines New York's public parks, theaters, store windows, buildings, and monuments in the early twentieth century. How do we envision our own city in the twenty-first century?

JOIN THE DISCUSSION AT REYNOLDA HOUSE: "Seeing Our City: The Art of Defining a Place," an engaging series of community forums using art to inspire action. Free; reception follows each forum.

OCTOBER 23, 7 P.M. Transforming Our City: Bridging Public Art and Public Works Guest speaker: Frederick Gottemoeller, architect, engineer, and author of the classic study, Bridgescape: The Art of Designing Bridges. Panel: Public Art Committee of the Arts Council of Winston-Salem and Forsyth County, Community Appearance Commission, and Business 40 Project.

REYNOLDA HOUSE MUSEUM of AMERICAN ART

2250 Reynolda Road, Winston-Salem, NC 27106
336.758.5150 | reynoldahouse.org

Supported by the Arts Council of Winston-Salem & Forsyth County

JOHN WILLIAMS THE SEQUEL

WINSTON-SALEM SYMPHONY ROBERT MOODY, MUSIC DIRECTOR

PLUGGED-IN POPS SERIES

JOHN WILLIAMS—THE SEQUEL

Featuring:
Carl Topilow, Guest Conductor
Winston-Salem Children's Chorus

Music from:
E.T.: The Extra-Terrestrial, Hook, Amistad, The Empire Strikes Back, Empire of the Sun, Star Wars and more

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 2008, AT 7:30 P.M.
Reynolds Auditorium

TICKETS: $15-$55
For more information, call 336-464-0145 or visit www.wssymphony.org.

WINSTON-SALEM SYMPHONY

POWERED BY SOUND

