

Salem students do their part to build a home for a local family.

Students take part in muddy Habitat build

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

In response to National Make a Difference Day of Volunteerism, Salem College students rolled up their sleeves and worked on a recent women's build for Habitat for Humanity of Forsyth County.

It was rainy and muddy, but spirits were high as they worked to finish the home of Difference Day of Volunteerism" of Volunteers of America is a celebration of the nationwide day of service. This year it took place on Saturday, People around the United States volunteered with local organizations to help support and uplift their communities.

presents computer to teen

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The Winston-Salem Housing Authority Board of Commissioners presented Brian McCorkle with a laptop during the Oct. 14 board meeting for his stellar academic achievements.

Brian scored over 1500 on the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) and maintained a 3.8 GPA at Parkland High School.

Brian stated, "One of my driving forces to succeed academically has been the desire to influence my sisters.

He grew up in the Happy Hill and Piedmont Park communities and has participated in almost every youth program offered by the Housing Authority. Brian, his mother and two sisters now reside in the Providence Place (College Park) community. He was a dedicated participant in the Public Housing Authority State Athletic Conference (PHASAC) and is now a college freshman. Brian attends Livingstone College Salisbury, NC. He received an academic scholarship and is currently majoring in Political Science and plans to go on to Law School.

Brian McCorkle accepts a laptop computer from HAWS officials (from left) Bill McClain, Bruce Levin, Lydia Hayes-Calvert, James Rousseau, Larry Woods and Walter W. Pitt Jr.

According to William (Bill) McClain, HAWS Youth Services Coordinator and Forsyth County Weed & Seed Program Director, Brian has outstanding character and is very spiritual. Brian is fully committed to his family and being an excellent role model for his sisters and other young people in the city of Winston-Salem.'

McClain was also recognized by the Board of Commissioners for his years of service and dedication to HAWS youth. McClain was one of the founders of the PHASAC organization, which focuses on the prevention of state-wide school drop-outs and gang affiliation.

Omega chapter plans full slate of Achievement Week events

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The Psi Phi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc. will observe its Annual Achievement Celebration, Nov. 10 -17. This year the Achievement Week Committee, under the guidance of Chairman James Franklin Jr., has planned an agenda that is in accordance with the true spirit of bonded men eternally by friendship brotherhood and humility.

On Monday Nov. 10, the will brothers visit their sick brothers at their homes and in assisted care facilities. Psi Phi Chapter will recognize all brothers who have served the country at a luncheon on Veterans Day on Tuesday, Nov. 11. On Wednesday, Nov. 12 at 6:30 p.m., the public is cordially invited to join the Omega's at SciWorks Science Center, 400 West Hanes Mill Road, to formally recognize ten deserving Omega men for their unselfish contributions during 2007 and 2008

Attendees are asked to bring canned goods to help the fraternity prepare baskets for Thanksgiving. On Thursday, Nov. 13, a fraternity social for members-only will take place at the Winston-Salem Urban League. A golf outing is planned for Saturday, Nov. 15 for all avid golfers in the chapter. The time and location of this event was not available at press time.

A praise and reflection observance will be held at St. Paul United Methodist Church during the 11 a.m. worship service on Sunday, Nov. 16. The Brothers will observe Founders Day with a luncheon on Monday, Nov.

17, at WS Prime, in Downtown Marriott, at 11:30

Omega Psi Phi Fraternity founded November 17, 1911 at Howard University, which solidified its place in history as the first organization of its kind to be founded Historically Black College and University (HBCU).

Every November, to honor the four founders - Dr. Ernest E. Just, Bishop Edgar A. Love, Dr. Oscar J. Cooper and Professor Frank Coleman - members take a moment in time to reflect and recognize the achievements of brothers who have answered the call to serve above and beyond in their church, community and chapter.

Race Progress program planned at New Bethel

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

On Sunday, Nov. 9 at 4 p.m., the Effort Club of New Bethel Baptist Church will celebrate its 84th Anniversary by honoring several local men and women who have done an outstanding job in promoting racial progress in Winston-

This year's program will honor individuals in the fields of ministry, medicine, arts, law, business, human services, sports and education. A reception honoring the award recipients will follow the program providing an opportunity to meet all the

Since 1997, this inspiring program has served as a local, living history lesson for everyone in the community. The "Race Progress" theme is credited to Susie Drayton, former first lady of New Bethel Baptist Church.

The entire Winston-Salem community is invited to attend. The church is located at 1016 North FREE PAD SCREENING Could your leg pain be a sign of a more serious problem?

Peripheral Artery Disease (PAD) is a serious condition that affects people as they age and drastically increases the risk of heart attack and stroke.

Former Pastor and First Lady Drayton

Join our physicians for a free educational program and a free PAD screening that examines the arteries in your neck, abdomen and legs.

Symptoms:

- Cramping in hips/legs
- Fatigue while walking
- · Pain in the hip or leg muscles that goes away when you stop or rest

Those at Risk:

- Anyone over 50
- History of coronary artery disease/diabetes
- High blood pressure/high cholesterol
- Tobacco users

Fri., Nov. 14 • 7-9 p.m.

Educational Program - Conference Center, Forsyth Medical Center

Sat., Nov. 15 * 8 a.m.-4 p.m.

PAD screening - by appointment Preventive Cardiology, Forsyth Medical Center

Pictured left to right: Robert Preli, MD, interventional cardiologist; Stephen Motew, MD, vascular surgeon; Daniel Golwyn, Jr., MD, interventional radiologist

Forsyth) CARDIAC & VASCULAR CENTER

Remarkable People. Remarkable Medicine.

To register, call 336-277-2250 and specify that you're calling for Dare to Care. www.ForsythMedicalCenter.org

Two great homes available at great prices.

5090 Cobblestone Road and 2205 Lambeth Farm Road

5090 Cobblestone Road $199,900 BELOW APPRAISAL & SPACE GALOREI Over 2800 sq.ft., spacious rooms with potential expansion in basement with fireplace, 3BR/2BA, 3-car garage. Living room with gas logs, formal dining room, great Don't forget the Neighbould kitchen! Huge den with vaulted ceilings, lower level play/game room. assistance maybe available. Huge deck access to living room, den & Kitchen! A MUST SEE!

2205 Lambeth Farm Lane, Kernersville FIRST TIME HOME BUYER DREAM! Spacious 2BR/2BA maintenance-free living, low utilities and great location. Don't forget the Neighborhood Pool! Down payment

HMonroe@LRBRealEstate.com 1012 GLADE ST WINSTON-SALEM NC 27101

Helen Monroe

779 9248

Start Today!! 1-800-930 wasp (927 get