

Lenner P. Jefferies and Evalena Clayborn.

Zeta chapter presents honors

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The Rho Zeta Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. recently honored two members of the sorority and one Amica (a friend of the organization) at its Triad Finer Womanhood celebration.

Soror Lenner P. Jefferies received the Zeta of the Year Award. She has been a dedicated and committed member throughout the year and in previous years. Jefferies serves as chaplain, conducting inspiring devotional activities for each meeting. She is also involved with many additional duties and responsibilities.

Jefferies is co-chairperson of the Amicae Auxiliary of Rho Zeta Chapter and a dedicated member of the membership committee.

Amica Evalena R. Clayborn was presented with the Community Service Award. Clayborn served as president of the Amicae Auxiliary for more than 15 years. She was consistently motivated and a dedicated leader for the group and assisted the sorority admirably. Clayborn was always prepared to carry out her responsibilities as designated.

The Basileus' Award was presented to Soror Gloria Frazier for her outstanding service to the sorority. President Marian A. Hairston initiated the annual Basileus' Award in 2007.

Frazier has performed many efforts to help fulfill the goals of the sorority. She serves well in the capacity as co-chairperson to the Program/Blue Revue Committee. She exhibits a high level of energy in providing leadership for the committee. The sorority counts on Frazier to spearhead well-organized celebrations each year.

Bible series continues at Green Street Church

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Liz Hotchkiss will facilitate a discussion on "The Message of Hope in the Book of Revelation" at Green Street Church, 639 S. Green St., at 9:45 a.m. on Sunday, June 21.

According to Barbara Rossing, author of "The Rapture Exposed," vengeful readings of Revelation have falsely depicted God as eager to destroy humankind. Sunday's session of the video-based "Living the Questions" Bible study explores this "hijacking" and distorting of the message of Jesus' love
