

Local members recognized at NCNW Coalition in Durham

The Ninth Annual North Carolina State Coalition of the National Council of Negro Women Inc. held its Bethune Recognition program on Saturday, June 27 at the Sheraton RTP Hotel and Convention Center in Durham under the theme, "Coming Together To Make A Difference."

The Durham Section of the organization, led by Edna L. Titus, hosted the event. Elizabeth Jones served as chairperson; Louise W. Weeks and Sharlene Lee were co-chairpersons.

Winston-Salem resident Dr. Manderline Scates made presentations to several members including Bethune Achiever Jean Moses-Petree and Wilhelmina B. Long of Winston-Salem.

Petree serves the Winston-Salem Section as the recording secretary and as the NCNW State Coalition recording secretary. The Wachovia Bank employee is the mother of three adult children, Michael, April and Johnny, and the wife of Teddy W. Petree Sr. Her extended family includes four more adult children. She is an active member of the Rising Ebenezer Baptist Church, where the minister is the Rev. William C. Brown.

Long was honored with a Silver Achiever Award. She has served as an educator for more than 38 years in both North Carolina and Brooklyn, N.Y. She received her undergraduate degree from Winston-Salem State University; a master's degree in Education at N.C. A&T

Moses-Petree

State University; and a degree in supervision and administration at Brooklyn College in New York.

Long serves with countless organizations, including the National Association of University Women, the Winston-Salem Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, OES Chapter #608, the WSSU National Alumni Association, the North Carolina Association of Senior Citizens Club, the Skyland Senior Club, the Winston-Salem Emancipation Association and Hunter Hills Community Association.

She serves as chief judge for the North Hills Precinct. Long is a member of Shiloh Baptist Church, where she serves as a trustee, deaconess, member of the Ladies Progressive Ministry and chair of the Scholarship Committee.

She is married to Robert W. Long and is the mother of three adult children, Andraia, Connie and Don; two stepdaughters, Linda and Barbara; and seven grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

The Winston-Salem Section of the National Council of Negro Women Inc. meets the second Tuesday of each month

(except in July) at Rupert Bell Recreation Center, 1501 Mount Zion Place at 7 p.m. Mildred Griffin is president and Dr. Manderline Scates is the N.C. State Convener.

Businessman to open second smoothie shop

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Flashback Smoothies and Soda Shop, which already has a location at 1003 Brookstown Ave., will open its second store at 4001 Country Club Road. Grand Opening celebrations are slated for July 10-11. They will include drawings for gift certificates and other prizes.

The business was started in 2005 by Michael Clinton, who credits the business' success to the extraordinary customer service provided to patrons. "We get to know our customers on a personal basis and provide quality smoothie and food products without compromising to make a buck," he stated.

The new Flashback Smoothies store will serve the same smoothies and milkshakes that have made the original store popular. The menu will also include ice cream flavors, baked pretzels, strawberry shortcake and banana splits.
