

THE PULSE

ISP is hosting a toy drive to benefit Brenner Children's Hospital and Santa's Helper. The drive will be Saturday, Dec. 5, from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. at ISP's offices at 541 N. Trade St. Bring a newly packaged toy or gift, and enjoy complimentary cookies and apple cider.

DWSP is now accepting nominations for the 2009 Downtown Excellence Awards. Go to www.dwsp.org for all details on how to nominate your downtown hero. Nominations must be submitted by December 7.

THE WINSTON-SALEM LIGHT PROJECT by the UNCSA School of Design will take place November 19-21 from 7 to 11 p.m. The event is part of the 6 Days in November. This year, the project will light the Pepper Building at Fourth and Trade streets. Go to www.lightproject.org for more information.

THE CHILDREN'S MUSEUM is having its Happy Fifth Birthday to the Museum Party on Nov. 20 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Go early for free doughnuts and admission (9-10 a.m.). Activities, a Clifford coloring contest, and story-times will be on-going throughout the day. For a complete schedule, go to www.childrensmuseumofws.org.

WILDFIRE is hosting Digital Marketing Boot Camps through December on the campus N.C. A&T State University in Greensboro. Join the industry leaders at Wildfire for an in-depth crash course on marketing across the digital landscape. For more information or to register, go to www.digitalmarketingbootcamp.com.

ARTIST LISA ROUTH ALLEY will present a handcrafted quilt show on Saturday, Nov. 14, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Chelsea's Coffee Shop (533 N. Trade St.). More than seventy quilts will be on display and for sale. Call 336-703-1503 for more information.

SHOE SHRINE will be presented by Urban Artware and 5VE & 40RTY in Winston-Salem's Downtown Arts District. This is an exhibition of specially created shoes in memory of artist, art advocate and friend, Kelly Petersen. In honor of Petersen, whose one of many passions was shoes, the community is invited to submit shoe shrines to be displayed at 5VE & 40RTY and to be auctioned on Friday, Nov. 13 with proceeds to benefit the Kelly Jo Petersen Scholarship at UNCSA School of Design and Production. All you need is an old shoe, paint, glitter, hot glue and any other decorations. Please make sure that there is a hanging device on the back of the shoe (i.e. a sawtooth hanger). For more information, contact Amy Garland at 336-724-2474 or amy@5iveand40rty.com.
