

FIESTA a huge success once again

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

More than 15,000 people attended The Hispanic League's Annual FIESTA on Saturday, Sept. 25, the organization announced recently. All proceeds from the event will benefit community programming and scholarships for local Hispanic/Latino undergraduates.

Attendees came to dance to live music by Orquesta GarDel, Sonora Dinamita, Mariachi Mexico 2000, and Raza Alterada, as well as to see traditional folkloric dances performed by Ballet Folklorico Guadalupano and Magetsi Folkloric. Fiesta also provided the opportunity to try great food from Central and South America, margaritas and beer at the Beer Garden, and the opportunity to buy arts and crafts from local artisans. The Children's area drew the largest crowd ever with its piñatas, games, face painting, balloon sculpting, moonwalk and more.

10th Pastoral Anniversary events slated for McCloud

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The Greater Tabernacle Worship Center (GTWC) will celebrate Apostle B.J. McCloud's 10th Pastoral Anniversary Celebration through Oct. 17.

Bishop Stephen Williams of Mt. Zion Outreach Center will speak on Thursday, Oct. 14 at 7:30 p.m. On Friday, Oct. 15 at 7:30 p.m., Overseer John Ford of the Healing House of God will speak.

McCloud

The celebration will continue with a banquet on Saturday at The Windsor Club at 6 p.m. The speaker will be Rev. Dr. J.R. Samuels Sr. The weeklong celebration will close on Sunday at 4 p.m. with guest speaker Apostle Andria Weeks of GLAD Ministries.

Under the leadership McCloud, Greater Tabernacle Worship Center has flourished into a ministry that strives to reach mankind. McCloud assumed the pastoral role in 2000. She continues to uphold the vision of the Greater Tabernacle Worship Center founder, the late Bishop Alonzo Watson McCloud Sr.

McCloud has a passion for the youth and young adults. She has been honored by the City of Winston-Salem for her community involvement and dedication. She desires for all to walk in the fullness of God and realize their purpose in the Kingdom. She is blessed with the gifts to encourage, empower, motivate, inspire and regenerate life to those who seem hopeless.

THOMAS COMPETING FOR MISS JR. TEEN GREENSBORO TITLE

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Kiara Thomas of Winston-Salem was recently selected to participate in the 2010 Miss Jr. Teen Greensboro pageant competition that will take place on Oct. 23.

She was chosen after she submitted an application and took part in an interview session with the event coordinator. Thomas will be competing for her share of thousands of dollars in prizes and specialty gifts. She will compete in the Miss Jr. Teen division, one of four divisions for young ladies between the ages of 7 and 19. The contestants will perform modeling routines in casual wear and formal wear; and display their personalities during the interview portion of the pageant. Personality is the number one aspect that each contestant is judged on during all phases of competition.

The winner will represent Greensboro and the surrounding communities at a national competition that will take place in Orlando, Fla., where she will enjoy an expense-paid five nights and six days. Contestants at the national level will vie for more than $60,000 in prizes and awards.

Kiara is the daughter of Maurice and Sabrina Thomas. She is a 9th grader at Glenn High School.
