Chi Eta Phi Sorority celebrates Founder's Day

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Triad chapters of Chi Eta Phi Sorority, Inc. joined chapters around the world in a celebration of the sorority's Founder's Day on Sunday, Oct. 16.

Chi Eta Phi – an organization of more than 8,000 registered professional nurses and nursing students (male and female) – was founded in 1932.

There are more than 90 graduate chapters and 50 undergraduate chapters located in 26 states in America, the District of Columbia, St. Thomas US Virgin Islands and Monrovia Liberia, West Africa.

The charter chapter, Alpha, was organized at Freedmen's Hospital (Howard University Hospital) in Washington, D.C. by 12 dedicated nurses, including Founder Aliene Carrington Ewell.

Winston-Salem's Chi Chi Chapter hosted this year's local celebration, which included the Sigma Chi, Sigma Chi Beta and Sigma Chi Alpha Beta Chapters of Greensboro and the Chi Chi Beta Chapter of Winston-Salem State University. A ceremony was held at Winston-Salem State and a fellowship dinner took place at the Village Tavern on Hanes Mall Boulevard.

Mack

Dr. Mack is the youngest recipient of the award since it was first presented in 2000. The Alumni Association describes Dr. Mack "as a wildly popular pastor whose dynamic personality has brought Christian teachings and principles to people well beyond his native Winston-Salem and Union Baptist Church."

The award came on the heels of Dr. Mack's 12th pastoral anniversary at Union Baptist, where Mack has built a sterling reputation for his many innovative church and community initiatives.

Mack's devotion to his community and his church are matched only by his love for his wife, Kim Romaine Bush, a 1987 Elon alumna whom he married in May.
