In the non-Jewish world (pagan), the people prayed to idols in repetitious sayings in an attempt to get the idols' attention. Read 1 Kings 18 to get a glimpse of their babblings. The passage also highlights the ineffectiveness of such carrying on. Unfortunately, the prayers of the Jewish leadership had become wordy public shows of piety. It was purely ritual with nothing happening on the inside. Their outward show of righteousness led people to look up to them (their reward) instead of looking to God.

Lesson: Jesus refers to all who concentrate on those public shows as hypocrites. The term derives from the Greek word "hypokrites," meaning pretenders, according to Echoes Adult Teacher Commentary. God is completely left out. Jesus cautions them not to pray that way. Public prayers are not forbidden, but He is focusing on the individual ones. Prayer is to come from the heart, not the head, recognizing that God already knows before the request is made. When done in secret, God rewards openly. The Model Prayer, also known as The Lord's Prayer, is the central point of this lesson.

For more information, call 767-3718.

Spiritual Choir anniversary
The St. Matthew Apostolic Temple Spiritual Choir will be celebrating its 29th Anniversary on Sunday, Nov. 20 at 4 p.m. Bishop Claude Thomas and Genesis Victory-Outreach will be the special guests. Nov. 26

Anniversary celebration
The Gospel Express Ministry will celebrate its third anniversary on Nov. 26 at 1 p.m. at 748 N. Chestnut St., across from The Downtown Health Plaza.

The first two verses reveal relationship (our Father) and who God is. When you need to talk on a very personal level to someone who will not judge or gossip- Who better than God? He is our Daddy who knows, loves, and looks out for us. His track record is impeccable! He is holy and reigns in heaven and on Earth! As time progresses, His Kingdom will be made complete. After recognizing who you are praying to, the individual acknowledges what God has done. The next portion avows His daily provisions, grace and mercy, and His ability to direct our paths (ordering our steps) so that He will be glorified!

We seek forgiveness sincerely from God; when He forgives us, can we do any less toward others?

Application: When praying to God there is no room for arrogance; however, He is big enough to handle our anger. We are sinners saved by His grace and mercy. Our awesome God should be revered in everything that we do! There is no room for empty, repetitious, mechanical ritual when we pray.

Our prayers are to be heartfelt petitions, full of thankfulness, while recognizing that His will for our lives exceeds our limited imaginations. God bless!!

Local doctor receives national honor

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The American Medical Association (AMA) presented local physician Dr. Jesse Hedgepeth Meredith with its 2011 Distinguished Service Award Saturday at its semi-annual policy-making meeting in New Orleans. The award is granted for meritorious service in the science and art of medicine.

Dr. Meredith

"Dr. Meredith has devoted himself to advancing clinical medicine as well as the public health," said AMA President Peter W. Carmel, M.D. "His tremendous contributions to the field of medicine and his work to improve the public health will benefit both future generations of physicians and their patients."

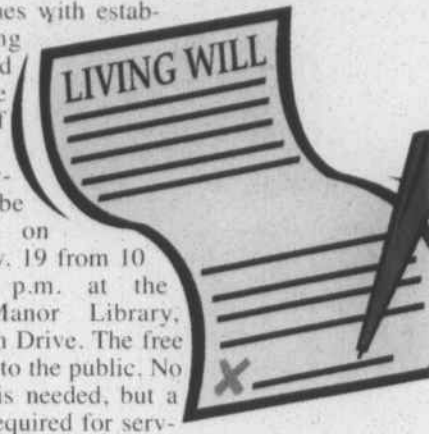

Dr. Meredith, a general and thoracic surgeon, is professor emeritus at Wake Forest University School of Medicine and has made several important contributions to the field of medicine. He was the first surgeon in the western world to successfully re-attach a severed hand, and he designed the first intensive care unit (ICU) in the country.

Dr. Meredith started the organ transplant program at WFUSM/WFU Baptist Medical Center and also founded and served as the first director of WFUSM's Biomedical Engineering department. He was a charter member of the Southeastern Organ Procurement Foundation, which set standards for donor organ procurement, preservation, and tissue typing, and served as a model for the current national standard for organ transplantation. Dr. Meredith became the director of the first burn unit and tissue bank in North Carolina and, with a colleague, planned and initiated the first comprehensive course for ambulance drivers, which eventually became the EMT program.

Free legal assistance offered through Project Grace

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

"Project Grace" - a free legal service project sponsored by the North Carolina Bar Association Young Lawyers Division - will assist local residents with limited incomes with establishing Living Wills and Health Care Powers of Attorney.

The service will be offered on Saturday, Nov. 19 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Reynolda Manor Library, 2839 Fairlawn Drive. The free event is open to the public. No appointment is needed, but a photo ID is required for service.

Jocelyn Fina of Womble Carlyle in Raleigh and local attorney R. Michael Wells Jr. of Wells Jenkins Lucas & Jenkins PLLC created Project Grace in 2009 and served as the Project's first co-chairs. The initiative has been so successful that the American Bar Association's Young Lawyers Division awarded it the first place award in the Service to the Public category.
