E-Girls spend the day with senior citizens

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

E-Girls spent the day at the Oaks Nursing & Rehabilitation Center, playing bingo and giving gifts to the residents.

The outing not only provided an opportunity for the girls to volunteer, but taught the girls that life requires all of us to care for and help others.

E-Girls have also participated in volunteer activities at the Piedmont Health Services and Sickle Cell Agency and the Forsyth County Advisory Board's annual Christmas party for children.

The mission of Empowering Girls in Real Life Situations (E-Girls) is to provide a safe, non-judgmental and caring environment where girls from the ages of 11 through 19 can be empowered by developing self-respect, communication skills and decision-making skills. E-Girls embraces all girls in the community. Founder Cheryl Ingram also works with girls at Parkland High School, Glenn High School, Hill Magnet School and Wiley Middle School.

For further information about E-Girls, call Cheryl Ingram at 336-602-5604.

Atkins Team Does Well

The Atkins Academic & Technology High School Science Olympiad team holds its second-place trophy after a stellar performance at last weekend's Winston-Salem Regional Science Olympiad Tournament. Atkins hosted the event, which featured 14 teams from schools around the Triad. The Atkins team - led by teacher Terry Howerton - is now among those that will advance to the State Finals at N.C. State University from April 27 - 28. Wins there could mean thousands of dollars in scholarship money for the students.

Celebrity servers to help Make A Wish Foundation

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The Fifth Annual Celebrity Serve fundraiser for Make A Wish of Central & Western North Carolina will be held on Tuesday, March 20. The funds earned during the evening will help make the wishes of local children with life threatening medical conditions come true.

"Each year we have numerous restaurants, celebrities, community leaders and supporters come together to make our unique Celebrity Serve fundraiser a success, and this year will be no different," says Make A Wish Regional Director Don Timmons. "This year, we even have several of our Winston-Salem firefighters participating as servers."

Participating eateries will donate 10 percent of their proceeds that day/evening to the Make A Wish Foundation, and all of the tips earned by celebrity servers will benefit the agency. Also, diners can help the cause by becoming $200 table sponsors and then hosting friends, family and colleagues at a participating restaurant.

Celebrity servers include WXII's Wanda Starke (Sweet Potatoes), Cameron Kent (Riverbitch Lodge) and Nicole Ducouer (Mozelle's), former NFL star Ed Bradley (Big Shotz Tavern - Clemmons), West Forsyth Principal Kurt Telford and his wife, Betty, (2520 Tavern), Southwest Elementary Principal Matt Dixon (Big Shotz Tavern - Clemmons), comedienne Sarah Barnhardt (Foothills Brewing) and Fox 8 News'

Neill McNeill and Julie Luck (Liberty Steakhouse & Brewery). For a full list of servers and the times they will serve, go to www.celebrityserve.org.

In 2011, 202 children in central and western North Carolina had their wishes come true, thanks to the Make A Wish Foundation and its supporters. That is almost a wish every day and a half. The average cost of granting a wish is $6,000 and Timmons anticipates the Celebrity Serve event will raise over $20,000 this year.

school-based Truliant location. One opened at East Forsyth High School more than a year ago. Students who have worked at the East branch have gone on to secure jobs with Truliant after graduation, credit union officials said.

A dozen students take turns manning the Wiley Credit Union - which has been open since Feb. 8 - on Wednesdays from 11 a.m.-12:30 p.m. The school's location has a teller window and a computer to allow students to access member accounts. Jafonda Johnson, the manager of Truliant's Victory Masonic Mutual Credit Union on Waughtown Street, will oversee the Wiley location.

Last week, eighth-grader DaNajah O'Neal, 13, was at the window. She processed a couple of small transactions just after the ribbon-cutting. She said she's already learned a lot about both team work and working with dollars and cents - skills she believes will help her down the line.

"It's exciting," she said. "I think it'll help me when I'm getting ready to go to college and applying for different jobs."
