Local Sigmas earn honors at regional conference

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity held its Southeastern Regional Conference in Myrtle Beach, S.C. from March 22-25.

Winston-Salem was well represented with nine Delta Sigma Chapter members and six Delta Alpha (the collegiate chapter) members in attendance. In all, 250 brothers registered for this conference.

Bro. Dr. Craig Fletcher, an associate professor at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, gave the keynote speech at the Leadership Luncheon. During the luncheon, Bros. Calvin Holloway and Carl Leak received Advisor Recognition Awards for their work with the Delta Alpha Chapter at Winston-Salem State University. WSSU's Delta Alpha was named the 2012 Collegiate Chapter of the Year.

The Regional Conference's public program, coordinated by Reginald McCaskill, president of Delta Sigma Chapter, was held on Friday evening. The Southeastern Regional Conference's Service Initiative supported the Lowcountry Food Bank. Sigmas generated $5,000 in donations for the food bank. The check was presented to Food Bank officials during the program.

At the conclusion of the conference, William Frasier of Charlotte was elected the 18th Southeastern regional director. Winston-Salem's Darryl Prince was elected to regional treasurer.
