

Submitted Photo

Crumley Roberts Attorney Kathleen DuBois presents Treyaun Fulton with a scholarship.

Scholarship

from page A4

The other winners were Jordan William Black of Catawba, Greyson Daniel Whitaker of Wingate, Marissa Marie Stockstad of Asheville and Tiffany H. Song of Summerfield.

To date, Crumley Roberts, which handles a variety of civil cases involving personal injury, has donated nearly $130,000 in scholarships and technology to college-bound students to support standing up for their futures.

"We received many submissions from community-mind, goal-oriented local students this year," said Chris Roberts, Crumley Roberts' president. "It was difficult to narrow down; however we feel that these students show extraordinary promise and Crumley Roberts is happy to be a small part of investing in their future."

Heat

from page A7

ous condition: heat stroke, a life-threatening condition that can lead to death. Symptoms of heat stroke include: hot, red skin, disorientation or changes in consciousness, hallucinations, rapid or weak pulse, rapid and/or shallow breathing, and fever.

Call 911 immediately!! Move the person to a cooler place and quickly cool their body with a cool bath or wet cloths and a fan. Watch for signs of breathing problems. Give the person small amounts of water to drink, and keep them lying down.

Symptoms of heat exhaustion include:

Cool, moist, pale, or flushed skin, heavy sweating, headache, nausea or vomiting, dizziness, and exhaustion. To treat heat exhaustion, remove or loosen the person's clothing and apply cool, wet cloths. Give them a 1/2 glass of cool water every 15 minutes. Let the person rest in a comfortable position and watch them carefully. If the person develops a fever of 102 degrees or higher, fainting, confusion, or seizures, you should get medical help right away.

You prevent heat-related illness by doing things like:

Drinking plenty of fluids; staying indoors and in an air-conditioned location; taking cool showers or baths periodically throughout the day; and wearing lightweight, light-colored, loose fitting clothing, hats, sunglasses and sunscreen.

Do you need further information or have questions or comments about this article? Please call toll-free 1-877-530-1824. Or, for more information about the Maya Angelou Center for Health Equity, please visit our website: <http://www.wakehealth.edu/MACHE>.

Eagles

from page A8

my girls and grateful to (Principal) Dr. Amber Baker and the Kimberley Park family."

The students staged a number of fundraisers to cover the costs associated with their trip to the competition. During the winter, they sold hot chocolate, apple cider and popcorn at the Winston-Salem Jaycees' Holiday Parade; for Valentine's Day and Easter, they sold "singing-grams" and candy grams. They also sold ice cream, lemonade, popcorn and candy during evening events at Kimberley Park.

Members of the chorus must audition and be invited to join. The group has performed at a number of local events, including the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools' PTA Council's Annual Dinner, the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools' Principals Holiday Luncheon and the Winston-Salem State University Choir's Holiday Concert.

Matthews-Phifer is a proud graduate of Winston-Salem State University, where she earned a B.S. degree in music education with a concentration in choral/vocal studies. During her time at WSSU, she was the assistant director of the University Choir, under the leadership of her mentor, D'Walla Simmons-Burke. She also composed and arranged songs for the renown University Choir and Burke Singers.

Matthews-Phifer teaches general music and chorus at Kimberley Park and Morgan Elementary in Clemmons.

She is also a musician and director for the Youth/Young Adult Choir and Male Chorus at her church, Oliver's Chapel AME Zion Church in Staley.

Aside from music, Matthews-Phifer enjoys reading, cooking for family gatherings, watching her children - Sean, 17 and Kayla, 14 - play basketball and spending time with her husband, Mark.

Auction

from page A8

Pennsylvania to North Carolina in 1753.

The other note is a Series 1882 "Brown Back" $20 National Currency from The Wachovia National Bank of Winston. On this note, William A. Lemly signed as president and James A. Gray as cashier. The National Banknote Census shows that this note is one of four known to exist. In 1906, Lemly retired and James A. Gray became president.

In 1910, Gray merged the Wachovia National Bank of Winston with the Wachovia Loan and Trust Company to form The Wachovia Bank and Trust Company with Colonel Francis Fries as president and James A. Gray as first vice-president. Three years later, in 1913, the "twin-cities" of Winston and Salem officially merged into the present city of Winston.

Both notes are from the personal collection of Henry Fries Shaffner (1867-1941), one of the original founders and the first chairman of the board of Winston-Salem's famous Wachovia Bank and Trust Company.

In 1910, when the Wachovia National Bank of Winston merged with the Wachovia Loan and Trust Company, Colonel Francis Fries was its president and his sister's son, Henry Fries Shaffner, was its secretary/treasurer.

Shaffner's son, Dr. Louis deS. Shaffner of Winston-Salem, loaned the Wachovia National Bank of Winston note to Wachovia Bank to photograph for a bank brochure, celebrating the 100th anniversary of the bank in 1979.

The featured banknotes, lots #2760 Salem First National Bank and #2761 Wachovia National Bank of Winston, can be viewed online along with a full auction schedule at www.lynknight.com.

maas
music academy
of the american south

PERFORMANCES WORKSHOPS MASTER CLASSES

Presented by
UNC School of the Arts &
Kenan Institute for the Arts

EVENING CONCERTS:

Friday, June 8, 7:30 p.m.
The Del McCoury Band with special guests, Martha Bassett, The Branchettes

Saturday, June 9, 7:30 p.m.
Preservation Hall Jazz Band
The Tony Rice Unit
The Tres Amigos

Sunday, June 10, 7:30 p.m.
Jim Lauderdale
Bishop Dready Manning
Bump and Logie

Purchase tickets to evening concerts at the Stevens Center, by calling 336-721-1945 or online at uncsa.edu/performances

Workshops and master classes are FREE and open to the public, and feature these artists and more:

- Martha Bassett
- Roley Baugus
- Bishop Dready Manning
- The Branchettes
- Bump and Logie
- Laurelyn Dorsett
- The Del McCoury Band
- Dr. Michael O. Hartley
- Wayne Henderson
- Dr. Nola Knouse
- Jim Lauderdale
- David Nelson
- Preservation Hall Jazz
- The Tony Rice Unit
- The Tres Amigos
- Tony Williamson

Celebrating the Music
of the American South
JUNE 8-10, 2012

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA
SCHOOL of the ARTS

S.W.A.G.G.

Students Worshipping According to God's Glory

YOUTH CONFERENCE 2012

"I Can Do All Things Through Christ Who Gives Me Strength"

FREE REGISTRATION

www.galileemissionarybaptist.org

JUNE
22-24

4129 Northampton Drive
Winston-Salem, NC 27105
336.724.3857

"ALL I DO IS WIN" SWAGG WEEKEND
Friday, June 22; 5PM - 8PM SWAGG Cookout
Saturday, June 23; 8AM - 1PM Youth Summit
Sunday, June 24; 8AM & 10:45AM Youth Sunday

There will also be a Parent Workshop on Saturday June 23

featuring...

Marques L. Douglas
12 year NFL Veteran

Edgecombe County High School Gospel Choir
Durham, NC

Rev. Cory Jones
Co-Pastor of Jackson Memorial
Baptist Church
Thomas, GA

