La Nouveaute' Bridge Club gives to Food Bank

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The La Nouveaute' Bridge Club (The New Bridge Club) donated $250 to the Second Harvest Food Bank for its Backpack Program. The program provides food for young people who receive free and reduced meals at school during the school year. They are sent home with backpacks filled with simple, healthy meals that can be enjoyed during the summer or on the weekends during the school year. Members of the Club said they felt an urgency to assist the program and will continue to assist with this project. The La Nouveaute' Bridge Club was organized in March 1935. The Club's purpose was to improve members' bridge skills and engage in community outreach programs. Founding members included school administrators, librarians, businesswomen, teachers, and social workers. At the present time, Dr. Virginia Newell serves as president. The other members are Mary Andrews, Toy Beaty, Carolyn Black, Marie Burney, Kay Clark, Clara Gaines, Brenda Hodge, Billie Matthews, Rose Marie Norman, Ruth Oliver and Arlayne Tate.

Phones to be collected for soldiers

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Members of the Alpha Mu Beta service fraternity and the Student Government Association of Forsyth Technical Community College are joining the non-profit Cell Phones for Soldiers Inc. in asking Winston Salem residents to help troops call home by donating gently-used phones.

Beginning Saturday, June 30, residents can donate their phones at the Chick-fil-A located at 3343 Sides Branch Road, across from Walmart on Peters Creek Parkway, between the hours of 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. Chick-Fil-A will be distributing free coupons to those who donate their used or unwanted cell phones.

Residents can also donate used cell phones at Forsyth Tech campuses from July 1 - July 31.

Cell Phones for Soldiers was founded by teenagers Robbie and Brittany Bergquist at the ages of 12 and 13. The charity has since provided more than 150 million minutes of free talk time to service men and women stationed around the world. Funds raised from the recycling of cellular phones are used to purchase prepaid international calling cards. On average, Cell Phones for Soldiers distributes 12,000 calling cards each week to bases around the world, care package programs, deployment ceremonies and VA hospitals.

Carver class celebrates 70th birthdays

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The 1960 Carver Alumni Chapter, which became organized and re-acquainted in 2010 for its 50th anniversary celebration, has held frequent fundraisers to benefit the Carver School Scholarship Fund and outings in the past two years. On June 9, the group enjoyed their "70th Birthday Bash!" an event collectively celebrating the 70th birthdays of class members, at the home of Landis and Cleo Kimbrough. The weather, food and atmosphere were superb. Attendees ate, danced and reminisced throughout the delightful evening. Sarah Hill Carter, the president of the Class, presented engraved bookmarks to the chapter members.

Eastern Regional Director Drusilla Kinzonzi from Brooklyn, New York presided over the conference. National President Betty Dixon of Beachwood, Ohio was also in attendance. During the same period, the Anthropos, the male affiliate group under the leadership of Eastern Regional President Gary King, convened its 44th Eastern Regional Conference.

Special guests included Dr. Lewis M. Anthony, senior minister of Lucille AME Zion Church in Washington, D.C., whose inspiring message to attendees centered around several major points about the status of education.

During the event's awards banquet, scholarships were presented from the Eastern Region to high school seniors. The Perpetual Scholarship Foundation awarded Winston-Salem's Patsy O. Squire a scholarship to support her doctoral work in educational leadership.

Eight African-American teachers in Jersey City, N.J. started the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, Inc. in 1923. The sorority has expanded throughout the United States with many educators as active members.
