

Stowe remembered for community service

Submitted Photo
From left: AC Stone with Coach James Williams and Ben "Santa" Piggott at a 'Peace Toys' event.

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Kids at the Carl H. Russell Sr. Community Center are among the many this week mourning the passing of radio personality AC Stone. Alvin Stowe, known to listeners of 97.1 QMG as AC Stone, died Saturday after a battle with leukemia.

For many years, Stowe helped Russell Center Supervisor Ben Piggott with the Christmastime Peace Toys for War Toys exchange program. His smiling face greeted some of the thousands of children who received toys through the program.

"AC Stone will always be remembered as one of the voices who pushed non-violence among children and the community," said Piggott, organizer and founder of Peace Toys for War Toys.

Stowe, who has served as a mentor to students studying communications at Winston-Salem State and was an ordained minister at Spencer Memorial Christian Church in Winston-Salem, leaves behind his wife, Sabrina, and four children.

His funeral is scheduled for today (June 28) at 1 p.m. at Union Baptist Church, 1200 N. Trade St. Family visitation will be from noon - 1 p.m.

Submitted Photo
From left: Book Scholarship Sponsor Daughter Mary Scott, Deputy of the Oasis Daughter Ruby Charles, Cherina McKnight, Treyaun Fulton, Chloe Wilborn, Illustrious Commandress Eva McWillis and Daughter Hattie B. Fulton.

Sethos Court #105 Daughters of Isis awards scholarships

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Members of Sethos Court #105 Daughters of Isis recently presented book scholarships to Cherina McKnight of Parkland Magnet School and Chloe Wilborn of Winston-Salem Preparatory Academy. The scholarships for $250 each were presented to the students at their respective schools during Senior Awards Day. The money will help McKnight, who will attend

Wake Forest University in the fall, and Wilborn, who is headed to East Carolina University, buy textbooks.

Also, Illustrious Commandress Eva McWillis presented the N.C. Desert Scholarship in the amount of $1,000 to Treyaun Fulton, who will attend the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Daughter Hattie B. Fulton is the chair of the Scholarship Committee.

Local 4-H'ers hobnob with lawmakers

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

A delegation of Forsyth County 4-H members attended the recent 4-H Citizenship North Carolina Focus in Raleigh.

The Forsyth County delegation were among more than 200 youth and adults representing more than 75 4-H programs across the state gathered to exchange ideas, gain knowledge and learn through hands-on experiences about the different levels and branches of government.

Nathan Barrick, Hosanna Gourley, Josiah Gourley, Laura Hutchins and Brandon Joyce represented Forsyth County at the June 11-13 conference. Through various conference sessions and facilitated discussions, delegates learned and shared information related to local, state and national government as well as participating in budget simulation sessions and learned how to be active in the area of citizenship. Delegates also worked with their county 4-H Agent to develop an action plan based on a local need in their community to implement upon returning home from the conference.

The highlight of the conference was the Legislative Breakfast, where delegates had a chance to meet and have photos taken with their elected officials. Following the breakfast, delegates traveled to the Legislative Building to meet with their elected officials and their staff.

Submitted Photo
From left: Josiah Gourley, Nathan Barrick, April Bowman (4-H agent), Hosanna Gourley, Brandon Joyce and Laura Hutchins.

Community Care Center

Volunteers working together to provide free medical care to low-income, uninsured families.

You must be approved as a patient before seeing a doctor or dentist. We accept applications for new patients on Tuesdays and Wednesdays between 1:00-4:00 PM. We suggest you pick up a brochure about our requirements to prepare for the interview. Applications are taken on "first come, first served" basis. We accept only 40 applications per week.

- We are not able to provide care for pregnant women.
- We are not a walk-in clinic.
- We can't handle emergencies.
- We cannot accept patients with Medicaid, Medicare, Veterans' Administration Benefits or private health insurance.

Volunteers and our small staff provide medical care for our patients. We are supported with donations from churches, individuals, businesses, foundations and the United Way. We do not receive government funds.

2135 New Walkertown Road
Winston-Salem, NC 27101
(across from Evergreen Cemetery)
More Information: 336-723-7904

Celebrate the opening of the new Maya Angelou Center for Women's Health & Wellness!

Ladies' Night Out

Thursday, June 28

6 to 7 p.m. Ask the Doctor Panel
7 to 7:30 p.m. Breakout Sessions

(Please note the session of your choice when you register)

INFORMATIVE Bring every question you've ever wanted to ask a doctor and we'll have a panel of doctors available to provide an answer

FABULOUS Breakout Session 1 - See the latest styles from Macy's during a mini fashion show
Breakout Session 2 - Participate in a Zumba session
Breakout Session 3 - Get tips from a healthy cooking class with a certified nutritionist

FUN Win door prizes, enjoy appetizers and giveaways

Call 336-718-7000 to register.

Forsyth Medical Center Conference Center
3333 Silas Creek Parkway, Winston-Salem, NC 27103

Can't make it? Log in during the event and watch from home!
Visit www.forsythmedicalcenter.org/mayaangeloucenter for more information.

Sponsored by

Winston-Salem
Urban League

Forsyth MEDICAL CENTER
Maya Angelou Center
for Women's Health & Wellness