Smith-Ingram clan hold reunion

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The Smith-Ingram Family Reunion was recently held in Winston-Salem, drawing about 210 family members and friends from around the East Coast.

It began with a meet and greet was held on July 20 at the Delta Arts Center. A cook-out took place at Hathaway Park the following day, and the family attended church services at Union Chapel Baptist on Sunday, July 21.

During the reunion, gifts were presented to the oldest family member in attendance, 85-year-old Robert Lee Smith of Winston-Salem; and the youngest, seven-month-old Sloan Ari Aku Morton of Orlando, Fla.

The family's oldest female in attendance was Aragatha Smith, who will celebrate her 80th birthday on Aug. 22.

The motto of the Smith-Ingram Family is "God, Love & Family (in that order)."

New e-sign to debut at Arts Council Theatre

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Mayor Allen Joines and Arts Council President Milton Rhodes will officiate a public ceremony on Thursday, Aug. 23 to unveil an electronic marquee at the Arts Council Theatre, 610 Coliseum Drive.

Joines

The original marquee, which will be retired to make room for the new one, advertised performances running in the Arts Council Theatre since it was constructed in 1957.

At the event, which starts at 10 a.m., representatives of arts agencies housed in the building, including ones from the North Carolina Black Repertory Company, the Children's Theatre of Winston-Salem and Twin City Stage, will make remarks before the new electronic signage is plugged in and turned on for the first time.

Grand opening event at hair salon

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Corey-Paul's Hair Studio will hold a grand opening celebration on Sunday, Aug. 19 from 4-7 p.m.

The salon is located in Center Stage Shopping Center on Jonestown Road. Twenty-five-year-old owner/stylist Corey Durham started servicing clients at the new studio on Tuesday, July 31.

The salon was previously located in the Hewitt Business Center on South Marshall Street. The new location will allow the salon to gain a wider clientele. It is currently the only black-owned hair salon on Jonestown Road.

There will be finger food, cake, fresh punch and an assortment of wines served at the grand opening, which is open to the general public.

Corey-Paul's Hair Studio's address is 393 Jonestown Road. For more information, call 336-813-1448.
