IN MEMORIAM

KEARNEY
Jessie Mai Diggs Kearney died June 6, 2013 at Independence Village after a brief illness. She was the daughter of the late Mr. & Mrs. James T. Diggs, granddaughter of the late Bishop & Mrs. Jefferson Davis Diggs and the late Mr. & Mrs. Solomon Kennedy. She was born October 11, 1917 in Maryville, TN.

She graduated from Atkins High School with honors and W-S Teachers College in 1938. She received a Master of Art degree in Teaching and Supervision of the Visual Arts from Columbia University. She accepted a position as head art teacher in September, 1938 at Hillside Park High School, Durham, NC. In 1945 she was appointed Art Supervisor at one-half of the Durham elementary schools. After desegregation she became Director of Art for the Durham City Schools in 1970 and held that position until she retired June, 1979.

While living in Durham she was active in St. Titus Episcopal Church and on the boards of: Durham Arts Council, NCCU Art Museum, Substance Abuse, and the Coalition of Battered Women. She held memberships in the Retired School Personnel, the NC Education Association, National Art Education Association, Life Member of NEA, Friends of Stanford Warren Durham County Library, and the W-S State University National Alumni Association. She was a Golden Soror of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority (69 years), and the Alphonette and Bridge-A-Dette Clubs of Durham. She renewed her membership at St. Stephen's when she moved to Winston Salem in 2003. She was very close to her family and did not forget birthdays. She traveled extensively in Great Britain, Europe, Asia, Africa, South America, the USA, and the Caribbean Islands. Jessie also loved reading and playing bridge.

She is preceded in death by her husband, William P. Kearney; her brother, James T. Diggs, Jr.; her sisters, Rachel D. Wilkinson and Hannah D. Atkins; and a niece, Beverly D. Sharp. She is survived by her sister, Gloria D. Banks, and brother, Dr. Edward O. Diggs; also the following nieces and nephews: Charles N. Atkins, Edmund E. Atkins (Vera), Valerie A. Alexander, Janifer D. Clayton, Edward O. Diggs, II (Marianna), Lisa C. Diggs, and Sharon D. Fletcher; and other relatives and friends.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, June 22, 2013 at 11:00am for the Ivy Beyond the Wall ceremony, 11:30am for receiving friends, and 12:00pm for the service at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in memory of Jessie D. Kearney to St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, 810 N. Highland Ave., WS, NC 27101 or to WSSU Foundation, James Thackeray and Mabel Kennedy Diggs Endowment, 304 Blair Hall, Winston Salem, NC 27110. Online expressions may be received at hooperfuenralhome.net and by visiting Hooper at facebook.com.

Community Care Center

Volunteers working together to provide free medical and dental care to low-income, uninsured families.

You must be approved as a patient before seeing a doctor or dentist. We accept applications for new patients on Tuesdays and Wednesdays between 1:00-4:00 PM. We suggest you pick up a brochure about our requirements to prepare for the interview. Applications are taken on "first come, first served" basis. We accept only 40 applications per week.

- We are not able to provide care for pregnant women.
- We are not a walk-in clinic.
- We can't handle emergencies.
- We cannot accept patients with Medicaid, Medicare, Veterans' Administration Benefits or private health insurance.

Volunteers and our small staff provide medical care for our patients. We are supported with donations from churches, individuals, businesses, foundations and the United Way. We do not receive government funds.
