

Sethos Temple No. 170 members (first row, from left) Theodore Shields, William Stevenson, Reginald McNeill, Cassius Smith, William Hyman, Quinton Boulware (second row) Clark Hanner, Johnny Glenn, Boyd Archie, Wilson Collins, Ulise McMillan (third row) Louis Nelson, Steven Galloway, Ben Piggott, Bennie Williams, James Chalmers, Artis Woods, Fred Henry and Keith Browne.

Sethos Temple No. 170 elects officers

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Sethos Temple No. 170 elected a new slate of officers for the 2014 calendar

Reginald L. McNeill Sr. was elected and installed as 56th Illustrious Potentate for this celebrated Shriners Temple in January. McNeill will continue to steer the organization in its long tradition of community involvement and charity. The following are the elected officers: Donald Buie, Esq. - Chief Rabban; Cassius Smith -Assistant Rabban; Artis Woods Sr. - Treasurer; Keith Browne - Recorder; and Kenneth Kirby - High Priest and Prophet.

Clark Hanner Sr. serves as the Deputy of the Oasis of Winston-Salem.

The history of Sethos Temple No. 170 goes back more than six decades. In Illustrious Potentate Reginald L. McNeill Sr.

1944, a group of Masons from Winston-Salem traveled to Charlotte to join the Rameses Temple. After they returned, they began the Red Fez Club under the Rameses' charter since rules forbade temples to be within 28 miles of one another. (Greensboro already had the Khalif Temple.) After a request from North Carolina leadership at a National Imperial Session, the rules were changed, allowing temples to be at least 10 miles apart. Sethos Temple was founded in 1946, taking its name from the son of Egyptian Pharaoh Rameses II.

Among the group's founding members were Russell Funeral Home founder Carl Russell and funeral home founder Clark S. Brown, who hosted the first Sethos Temple meeting at the Patterson Avenue funeral home that bears his name.

Sethos Temple has 65 members. Membership is open to members of masonic organizations. It's an affiliate of Ancient Egyptian Arabic Order Nobles Mystic Shrine, Inc., which is composed of 224 Temples and more than 25,000 members world-

Links Circle Grows

Winston-Salem Chapter of The Links, Inc. President Linda Jackson Barnes (left) welcomes the group's newest member, Stephanie Hill-Palmer, into its sisterly fold. The Links, Inc. is one of the nation's oldest and largest volunteer service organizations of women committed to enriching, sustaining and ensuring the culture and economic survival of African Americans and others of African ancestry.

www.RogersAuctionGroup.com

EAT LOCAL, EAT HEALTHY

Buy fresh fruits & vegetables to complete your family meal.

Kingz Downtown Market

418 N Liberty Street Winston-Salem, NC 27101 (336) 722-4170

P&P Convenience Store

2723 Farmall Street Winston-Salem, NC 27105 (336) 918-0230

HEALTHY FOOD TASTING JUNE 12TH 1-2:30PM

Parker's Stop & Shop

4257 Reidsville Road Winston-Salem, NC 27101 (336) 703-5155

Rebecca's Store

1501 Attucks Street Winston-Salem, NC 27105 (336) 722-9206

Tickled Pink Convenience

3080 Kernersville Road Winston-Salem, NC 27107 (336) 784-5077

Forsyth County Department of Pairie Health ating Health, Improving Lives Made possible with funding from the North Carolina Community Transformation Grant Project and the Centers for Disease Control and

Sponsored by Winston-Salem Recreation & Parks

rde Leisure