Sudlers celebrate 55th anniversary

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Alfred and Gladys Sudler celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary on Aug. 15 at the Quality Inn and Suites.

The celebration was hosted by their daughters — Michelle Byrd, Christina Sudler and Kimberlee McNeil of Winston-Salem and Katrina Williams of Jamestown. The couple also has three grandsons, a granddaughter and a great grandson.

Family and friends enjoyed dinner and dancing and live music from the band Envision.

Known to loved-ones as Jake and Jimmie, the Sudlers continue to enjoy a life of love, laughter and commitment. They were married Aug. 8, 1959.

Alphas hosting golf tournament

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The brothers of the Alpha Pi Lambda Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., will sponsor their inaugural charity golf tournament on Friday, Sept. 5 at Winston Lake Golf Course beginning at 12 p.m.

The tournament will support the scholarship fund and educational programs of the Youth Life Skills Institute, an initiative of the Alpha Pi Lambda Chapter that was incorporated in 2009. The mission of the 501(3) nonprofit is to "connect, engage and facilitate the participation of school-aged children in life skill's programs that enrich, empower and enlighten their lives."

Alpha Phi Alpha was founded on Dec. 4, 1906 at Cornell University in Ithaca, N.Y. The Alpha Pi Lambda Chapter was founded on June 1, 1931 in Winston-Salem. Its other local efforts include sponsorship of the Lowden E. Anderson Sr. Science Fair, Adopt-A-Highway and The Kennedy Evening of Elegance.

For more information, contact Alpha Pi Lambda President Emery Rann III at 336-724-3463, or Alvin Howard at 336-414-4820.
