

NCNW installs new leaders

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The Winston-Salem Section of The National Council of Negro Women, Inc. installed its 2014-2016 officers during its regular monthly meeting in September.

NCNW State Convener Dr. Manderline Scales conducted the installation of the new officers.

Jean Moses-Petree is the president; Aurelia Worthy is vice president; Larn P. Dillard is the financial secretary; Jacqueline Bethea is the third vice president; Betty Whitaker is second VP; Carolyn Samuel is treasurer; Mae Burner is the recording secretary; Deloris Monsantos is the assistant recording secretary; and Lenner P. Jefferies is the chaplain.

Two Winston-Salem members are also serving as state officers – Moses-Petree, who is second VP, and Jefferies, who serves as chaplain.

The State Coalition includes the Alamance/Guilford County Area, the Capitol/Raleigh Area, Charlotte, Durham, Fayetteville, Northeastern/Elizabeth City and Winston-Salem. These sections meet every fifth Saturday in one of the host areas.

The National Council of Negro Women's mission is to lead, develop and advocate for women of African descent as they support their families and communities.

The Winston-Salem Section meets every second Tuesday of the month at 6:30 p.m. at the Rupert Bell Recreation Center, 1501 Mount Zion Place. New members are always welcome to join.
