

COMMUNITY

SECTION B

Also Sports, Religion and Classifieds

OCTOBER 30, 2014

Community Calendar

Fall Festival

Carl H. Russell Sr. Community Center, 3521 Carver School Rd., will present a free Fall Festival on Friday, Oct. 31 from 6 – 8 p.m. for ages 4 – 12. Toys, prizes and candies will be given away. For more information, call Ben Piggott or Beverly Ligons at 336-727-2580.

Mammograms

A mobile mammography screening vehicle will be at Mt. Zion Baptist Church, 950 File St., on Saturday, Nov. 15 from 9 a.m. - noon. Medicare, Medicaid and private insurance will be accepted and some scholarships will be available for those with no health coverage. Appointments are required. Call the church office at 336-722-2325 to make an appointment or for more information.

Senior Services needs volunteers

Senior Services currently needs volunteers for its Telephone Reassurance program. Volunteers call homebound, isolated older adults on a regular basis to verify their well-being and to provide socialization and support. Call 721-6965 for additional information or to sign up.

C2C

Union Baptist Church will hold its annual Corner 2 Corner Drug Dealers and Street Life Conference (C2C) from Nov. 20–23. The C2C conference is open to persons involved in all forms of street life. Registration is free and open to organizations and individuals involved with drugs and substance abuse and rehabilitation programs. For more information, call the church office at 336-724-9305.

B-ball and cheerleading league

The Carl H. Russell Sr. Community Center, 3521 Carver School Rd., will hold sign-ups for its basketball and cheerleading league for boys and girls between the ages of four and 14. Parents can sign their kids up through Dec. 28. The fee is $30. The league will start the third Saturday in Jan. at 9 a.m. For more information, call Ben Piggott at 336-727-2580.

WSSU game trips

A. H. Anderson High School Alumni will sponsor turn-around trips to the following WSSU away games: Nov. 1 at Shaw University and Nov. 8 at Fayetteville State University. For more information about these fundraisers, contact Theodis

See Community on B2

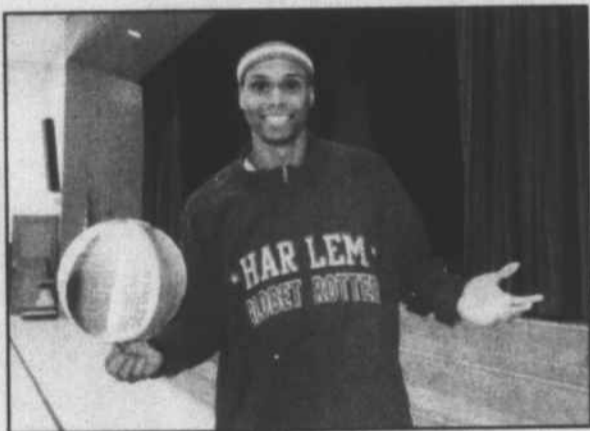

Photos by Chanel Davis

Above: Harlem Globetrotter Jonathan "Hawk" Thomas speaks to students at South Fork Elementary School.

Left: Thomas shows Kindergarten teacher Barry Hill how to execute a trick as First-grade teacher Becca Oliver and students Kalonji Patterson and Mackenzy Poli look on.

Globetrotter tells students to stand against bullying

BY CHANEL DAVIS
THE CHRONICLE

South Fork Elementary students received a lesson on how to combat bullying from Harlem Globetrotter Jonathan "Hawk" Thomas on Tuesday, Oct. 21 as part of Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools' slate of bullying awareness programs this month.

Williams

"I, myself, was bullied at a young age. So to have the opportunity to give back to those who may be going through the same situation and showing them how to deal with it and stop it in a positive way is great,"

Thomas said.

He stressed the ABC's of bullying prevention: Action, Bravery and Compassion. The first step encourages students to report acts of bullying. Thomas told students they should be brave enough to step in to make sure the bully understands that

See Bullying on B9

Above: Kindergarten teacher Barry Hill shows off his moves.

Left: Kalonji Patterson, 7, displays his talents.

TEXT
WSSU DRAMS
TO 501501

DONATE $10
AS YOU
ENJOY