Please call ahead to make sure your event is still happening. We will post cancellations/postponements announcements when received.

NOW - Volunteer Center of the Triad

The Volunteer Center of the Triad is responding to COVID-19 by bringing the volunteer community together. We have designated a portion of our website www.volunteercentertriad.org to assist our non-profit community as their needs arise around the COVID-19 pandemic. If you are interested in volunteering, visit www.volunteercentertriad.org, click COVID-19 Response and search volunteer opportunities available.

Now - May 31 Textile art display

Delta Arts Center is exhibiting "Raw Edges Textile Art," a display of quilts and other textile pieces made by local African American quilters, now through May 31. Delta Arts Center is located at 2611 New Walkertown Road. Call 336-722-2625 to arrange an appointment to view the exhibit.

Each Wednesday Marketing outside of the box sessions

HUSTLE Winston-Salem is hosting Marketing Outside the Box: The Art of Visual Networking. COVID-19 has impacted networking in a big way; you can still make this tool work for you. Enjoy virtual and hybrid marketing techniques to keep your business on your customer's mind! Virtual sessions happen every Wednesday from 12:30-1:30 p.m. You can register for the zoom link by going to: <https://www.hustlews.org/events-programs>. Contact hustlewsinfo@gmail.com for questions.

March 4 Strategic planning workshop

In advance of their strategic planning workshop in late March, the city's elected leaders are holding a virtual public input session March 4 to get a better idea of how residents feel about Winston-Salem and where we should focus our energy as a community.

The meeting will be held at 6 p.m. via Zoom. Residents who want to participate can receive an invitation to the meeting by registering at CityofWS.org/WSinput. The registration deadline is 11 p.m. March 3. The strategic planning workshop is scheduled to be held March 24-25.

March 9 AgingWell series

Now older adults, and those who love them, can stay connected and learn about ways to stay healthy- all from the safety and comfort of home by participating in the FREE monthly virtual AgingWell Series! On March 9, the AgingWell educational presentation will be "Know the 10 Signs of Alzheimer's" and will be led by Juanita Wade, community educator with the Western North Carolina Alzheimer's Association. While it is free to participate in the AgingWell Series, we ask that anyone who wants to participate please email us at AgingWellSeries@WakeHealth.edu and you will be sent the link to join the meeting.

March 9 Author event

Authors Leesa Cross-Smith and Naima Coster will be in conversation discussing their new novels, during a virtual event at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, March 9. This is a pay-what-you-can event. Attendees can either make a donation to Bookmarks or purchase one or both of the featured books. Visit <https://www.bookmarksncc.org/> LeesaCrossSmithNaimaCoster. Signed copies of both books are available when you join the Signed First Editions Club. The event is sponsored by Bookmarks.

March 22 Medicare workshop

The Shepherd's Center of Greater Winston-Salem is offering a virtual workshop for individuals turning 65 (as well as those who already have Medicare) to learn about the different insurance options available, including "Original Medicare," Medicare prescription drug programs, Medicare supplements and Medicare Advantage plans.

The session will be held on Monday, March 22, from 3 - 4:30 p.m. through computer and telephone access. The session is designed to explain and clarify the Medicare sign-up process and educate attendees on how to make smart choices. Trained Seniors' Health Insurance Information Program (SHIIP) counselors will be available to answer general questions.

The session is provided at no cost. Because space is limited, reservations are required. Contact the Shepherd's Center at 336-748-0217 or Info@shepherdscenter.org for more information or to reserve a seat.

How to submit items to the community calendar:

We appreciate your community news. Here's how you can help us to process your news more efficiently:

Please give us complete information about the event, such as the sponsor and address, date, time and place of the event and contact information so that the public can contact someone for more information if needed.*

Please submit items in document form in an email or Word or PDF attachment.*

Submit photos as attachments to emails as jpegs at least 4 inches wide by 6 inches deep rather than sent on documents. Please send captions with photos.*

Please do not send jpeg fliers only, since we cannot transfer the information on them into documents.*

The deadline is Sunday at 11:59 p.m. to have all calendar items submitted for that week's paper.

Send your calendar items to news@wschronicle.com. You can also drop them off, Monday through Friday before 5 p.m., or mail your items to Winston-Salem Chronicle, 1300 E. Fifth St., Winston-Salem, NC 27101; or send them via our website, www.wschronicle.com.

Moses

(verse 21) - that answers "How can we know ..." - when a prophet is found to be false. Moses says their threats on behalf of the Lord are not to be feared. "The prophet has uttered it presumptuously. Do not stand in dread of him" (verse 22). Summarily, a prophet is one who claims the truth, warns, exhorts and encourages. This is an apt description that applies to Moses as the greatest prophet and the only one to speak to God face to face. (The UMI Annual Commentary 2020-2021, The Jewish Study Bible, The MacArthur Study Bible and The Tony Evans Study Bible).

For Your Consideration: Why is it important that a prophet be of divine appointment? How do you test a prophet's words?

Application: We have from God's Word a standard for any prophet who claims to speak in His name. To uphold that standard, we ourselves must know God's Word. There are certainly false prophets even today, but if God's Word is carved in our hearts, we will be able to resist Satan's wiles and know true prophecy and instruction. "Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee." "I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways" (Psalm 119:11,15).
