FIRST LOT OF DRESSES TO BE DISTRIBUTED

Capt. G. B. Austin, of Salvation Army Headquarters, Will Assist in This Most Worthy Work

Three to Four O'clock Saturday Afternoon Selected As Time for Distribution

BIG CROWD EXPECTED Tanlac Man Will Help Poor and Needy Women of Winston-Salem

The Tanlac man has made full arrangements to distribute the first one hundred of the five hundred dresses—women's dress patterns of splendid material of full 36-inch goods at The O'Hanlon Drug Co.'s store, Saturday afternoon from three to four o'clock.

It is a large crowd of needy women of Winston-Salem assemble at this store to receive a dress as assembled at the store of the Jordan Drug Co. at Charlotte, recently, it will only take a few minutes for all of them to be distributed.

In an interview Thursday, Mr. Austin said, "My company gives a large income each year to the poor of the city that we visit and we think that the giving away of these dresses to the needy women of Winston-Salem is the most direct act of charity that we can engage in at the present time."

The dresses were purchased from the well known Eild's Department Store of this city and are sure to gladden the hearts of all who receive them. Capt. Austin, of the Salvation Army, will personally present these dresses at the O'Hanlon store and will see that the most destitute cases in the city are taken care of.

This is the first of the series of Free Dress Line in Winston-Salem as the statement has been made by Mr. Drum, that 100 dress patterns will be given away every week until further notice.

Mr. E. H. Drum, Winston-Salem, N. C. Dear Sir: We received notification that the five hundred dresses have been purchased by you for distribution to the needy and poor of our city.

In the name of those who have so generously remembered, we thank you for this mindfulness of them.

We hope we will see more of this great work.

Very respectfully, G. B. AUSTIN, Capt. Winston-Salem Salvation Army.

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, can be purchased at the O'Hanlon Drug Co.'s Store, Winston-Salem, and the merits of this wonderful preparation are fully explained by the Tanlac Demonstrator, who will be glad to enlighten you upon the treatment of various diseases upon which Tanlac has worked wonders. I have handled Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, kidney, liver and bladder remedy for twenty years and have heard plenty of favorable reports concerning it from my customers. A Winston-Salem Citizen Gives Information Of Priceless Value

When you suffer from backache, headaches, dizziness, nervousness, feel weak, languid, depressed, have annoying urinary disorders. Do you know what to do? Some Winston-Salem people do.

Read the statement that follows. It's from a Winston-Salem testimony that can be investigated.

Mrs. C. F. Holobough, S. Main street, Winston-Salem, says: "I suffered from rheumatic pains through my limbs. For several years my system seemed to be filled with uric acid. At times I felt quite miserable. I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at O'Hanlon's Drug Store and they made me feel very much better." (Statement given December 24, 1907.)

Over six years later Mrs. Holobough said: "When my back gets lame and causes me so much misery that I can hardly get about to do my housework, a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills always relieves me of the trouble. They are the only kidney medicine that has ever done me any good."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Holobough had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

More than a Million People have seen Douglas Fairbanks and Seena Owen in Triangle's splendid production of "The Lamb"

When Broadway goes crazy about a moving picture—it's time for you to see it. If you have seen "The Lamb," be fair to your friends. Tell them to see it, too. If you haven't—get hold of the manager of the Moving Picture Theatre you go to—and ask him to get the film and run it. Even if it does cost him a little more than usual pictures, he will be glad to get it—for he will make money on it. The speed of the story,—the big scenes with hundreds of people and hundreds of horses; the tightness you have in the throat when "The Lamb," all by himself, makes a stolen Gatling spit hell-fire and death at a howling mob,—all these help— But when lovely Seena Owen crawls up into Douglas Fairbanks' arms—and smiles— Well—you are so glad you went that you go again; and take your friends. Which is why more than a million people have seen "The Lamb." Every TRIANGLE picture may not be as good as "The Lamb." But every TRIANGLE picture is so far out of the usual moving picture class that it is worth going miles out of your way to see. See "The Lamb." Or—see it again. Any Moving Picture Theatre can get "The Lamb"; if it has already been shown nearby the crowd will be so much the bigger.
