MISS HERRY AND MISS STEADY

Little Miss Hurry.
All bustle and flurry.
Comes down to her breakfast ten minutes too late;
Her hair is a-rumple.
Her gown is a-crumple.
She's no time to button and hook herself straight.
She hunts and she rushes
For needles and brushes

All smiling and shining, and neat in her place.

With no need to worry.

She pities Miss Hurry.

Who but yesterday sat here with shame in her face.
Her heart beating lightly With duty done rightly.

She vowed she will never again change her name;
For though you'd not guess it I'm bound to confess it.

These two little maidens are one and the same. the same.

of the marriage on yesterday of Mr.
J. B. Prichett of this city to Miss Rose Louise Turner of Greensboro. The marriage took place at the home of bride's parents on West Gastor The following is from the Greens boro paper:

"Mess Rose Turner, the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Torner, was married last evening at 9:39 o'clock at her par-ents' home, 220 West Gaston street, to John Bradford Pritcheti of Win-ston-Salem. The wedding was sim-ston-Salem. The wedding was simple, being in the presence of relative and close friends only, but if was very pretty. Miss Agnes Mastin play-ed the marches and the "Angels Screnade," Miss Purner was dressed for traveling. Her maid of honor was her sister. Miss Julia Turner. The ring-bearer was the little nephew of the bride, Richard Ferguson of Knox-ville, Tenn. The best man for Mr. Pritchett was W. S. Alexander of Winston-Salem. These were the only Winston-Salom. These were the only attendants. The ceremony was the ring one of the Methodist church and Rev. C. W. Byrd. D. D. pastor of West Market Street Methodist church, West Market Street Methodist church, performed it. After the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Pritchett left for a northern honeymoon. They will return to Winston-Salem, where Mr. Pritcheft is the representative of the Southern Express Company.

The bride is a charming young lady who has spent all her life in Greens pero and has a targe circle of friends."

Mr. Pricheet is the popular agent of the Southern Express Company here, and has a large circle of friends while Miss Turner is a young woman of attractive personality,
