and stress the fact that such an appointment would be entirely consistent, as the position is rightfully regarded as non-political and should be maintained as such. "I have known Judge Connor from the days of his early manhood," said Major Stedman, "and I have never known any man in North Carolina, or out of the State, more eminently fitted by natural qualities and by study for a high judicial position.'

It is understood that the entire Tar Heel congressional delegation are behind Major Stedman in his effort to have this sterling Democrat appointed, but it is the consensus of opinion that the honor will go to a Republican. The supporters of Judge W. P. Bynum, of Greensboro, and J. J.
