

PLANS A MOVE
PEACH THOMPSON
Mayor Ignores Prohibition and Real Beer and Liquor Flows As Of Yore

July 23.—The Anti-Saloon League is preparing to hand Thompson a jolt. It desires to use his police force to close every saloon in Chicago with federal agents in charge. Mayor Thompson has taken the position that the police force has no right to enforce the law. The Volstead act created the police power and it is for the use of that power. The subject of painful contemplation of the government in enforcing the law. Wine and whisky are sold over the bars. The price for a glass of real beer is a cent. A drink for whisky costs a dime. A saloon is a place for a week and a half. The real beer is sold in the next block. The trail like a beagle.

They say they can make no secret of their plan. The latter usually direct the right spot, and laugh at the act. There is a state officer, E. J. Davis, head of the Anti-Saloon League here.

They are pretty bad in Chicago. Nothing is not done pretty well. It will be something dropping.

Lawson charged Thompson before the laws. Cap. Roberts, in charge of the Enforcement Bureau.

The law-abiding people of Chicago demand that the prohibition law be enforced, and the mayor is the man to do it. It is his duty, and we are going to see that the lid is shut down tight. Impeachment proceedings, I take it, would be the legal and proper method.

The Anti-Saloon League forces were credited with having prepared to go before the Cook county grand jury and obtain the indictment of Mayor Thompson for his failure to enforce the Sunday closing law several years ago. The mayor got wind of the plans of the reformers and caused a big commotion by suddenly closing every saloon in Chicago.
