

TWIN-CITY SENTINEL

(Afternoon Except Sunday) 49th Year. Established 1882. OFFICE—Sentinel Building, No. 241 Liberty St.

THURSDAY, JULY 22, 1920.

A THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

It is a sure sign of greatness if you can rise cheerfully and confidently above a personal loss, misfortune or disappointment.

Colonel George Harvey seems to be mad. But that seems to have been the colonel's natural state for some time.

The more the country sees and hears of "H" Johnson the more will grow the feeling of relief that he was eliminated from the presidential situation.

A Bryan-Sunday prohibition ticket would at least guarantee plenty of "pep" for the campaign.

The national campaign has reached the "deliberate lie" stage of controversy.

The Asheville Times says that Candidate Harding is a "born scrapper."

Sometimes a potentially useful ordinance is more honored in the breach than in the observance.

A little carelessness at this time may endanger the health of a whole neighborhood.

The promise that the Harding acceptance speech would be notable for its brevity does not seem to have been carried out.

Mr. Harding is setting rather a dangerous precedent in asking his opponent a series of questions.

Candidate Harding's first attempt to put "ginger" into his campaign could hardly be termed an unqualified success.

An article written for the Forum some time ago by Senator Lodge seems to be causing Colonel Harvey and other friends of the senator considerable embarrassment now.

SHOULD NOT BE SPASMODIC

It is a significant fact that more attention is now being paid to physical culture in schools and colleges, as well as on the outside, than ever before.

A CONDITION THAT SHOULD NOT CONTINUE

Agriculture in the United States is a basic industry upon which many other industries depend.

This should not be. Under present conditions various bureaus of the National Department of Agriculture are hampered in their work by the lack of funds.

Why not? We hope congress will take up this matter early in its next session and formulate some course of action that will give one of the most useful of government agencies much larger facilities for carrying on its work.

TOWN TOPICS

Things Seen and Heard by Sentinel Man—Variety of Local Matters Discussed.

MORE REGARDING THE WOMEN'S TRAINING CAMP. Something was said in this column yesterday about the women's training camp at Asheville, which was visited this week by a Sentinel man.

Following is the daily schedule as observed at the camp: 7:00 a. m. First call; 7:10 a. m., colors; 7:15 a. m., setting up exercises; 7:20 a. m., morning drill; 7:30 a. m., first call for breakfast; 8:00 a. m., breakfast; 8:40 a. m., cleaning up tent and camping streets; 9:15 a. m., inspection of tents and streets; 9:25 a. m., inspection for correct posture and neatness; 9:30 a. m., walking and breathing lesson; 9:45 a. m., setting up exercises; 10:15 a. m., relaxation; 10:45 a. m., games; 11:15 a. m., lecture; 12:30 p. m., dinner; 1 to 3 p. m., nature study or classes in basketry weaving, art, etc.; 3:25 p. m., reveille drill; 3:30 p. m., military drill; 4:15 p. m., relaxation; 5:00 p. m., swimming; 6:00 p. m., supper; 6:45 p. m., retreat; 7:00 p. m., games, campfire songs or camp entertainment.

Following are three sample menus: Breakfast—Baked apple, corn-fakes, ham and eggs, potatoes, muffins, coffee. Dinner—Vegetable soup, roast beef, potatoes, green peas, rhubarb pie, coffee or tea. Supper—Celery, cold meats, potato salad, corn suata, cup custard, raspberry punch.

Following is the membership pledge of the U. S. Training Corps Camp for women: "I pledge myself to think, talk and work for health, believing that health is America's greatest asset."

"Insofar as I am able, I will make my home a center of American ideals and patriotism, and will endeavor to provide the health of my community by cleanliness of streets, alleys, etc., and to further in every way in my power the health movements of the U. S. Public Health Service."

The following about the origin of the U. S. Training Corps for Women has been given out: "During the war, women were summoned to Washington to take the place in government service of the men called to the colors, and they responded loyally."

Unaccustomed to confinement in crowded offices, the difficulty in arranging for proper housing and the depression induced by homesickness caused these women, however, to return to their homes, some weeks faster than they were recruited. This was disastrous to efficiency, and the Efficiency Board of the War Department was called to consider the remedy.

"As a result, the War Department asked Miss Susana Crockett, noted health specialist, to come to Washington as a "dollar-a-year man" to see what could be done to build up the health and spirits of the women employees."

"The result in health, happiness and efficiency of these young women was so marked that it commanded the attention and approval of the heads of all departments of our government, and at their suggestion and advice the United States Training Corps was organized November 22, 1918, to carry the benefits demonstrated at Washington into our national life."

"When Bill passes congress plans have been made for the establishment of five large recreation health camps for women, to be located in the East, in the Southeast, in the West, in the Middle West and in the South."

Camps will also be located outside of large industrial centers where women employees may be during the summer and go to and from their work."

"These camps will be under the direction of trained military leaders who will give the military drill and the sitting-up exercises adapted to women."

"The U. S. Training Corps is chartered under the laws of Illinois 'an organization, not for pecuniary profit.' The fee of $3.00 membership helps to pay office expenses. The $14.00 annual fee pays board, tentage and instructors. The only other expense to the individual is laundry and uniform."

A SUGGESTION. "I hope that, when the committee on musical and other attractions goes to preparing its list for the coming season, a concert by Miss Sue Harvard, well-known Metropolitan Company soprano, will be included," said a local music lover yesterday.

"I heard Miss Harvard recently and the concert pleased me a little better than anything I had ever heard. I know Miss Harvard would make a great hit here."

more are coming in constantly. "I hope that a name will be selected soon," said a citizen yesterday. "The large number of names suggested is getting me somewhat confused. There are so many good ones that I hardly know which I favor."

TABACCO CROP PROSPECTS IN THE BURLEY DISTRICT

That the Burley crop will be a bumper, is the report we gather from reliable sources and from practically all the Burley belt. Late meetings are coming on nicely, and with continued favorable weather they will produce a good yield.

COLONEL RONALD STORRS GOVERNOR OF JERUSALEM

Jerusalem, June 20.—(By Mail.)—The office of governor of Jerusalem once occupied by Pontius Pilate, is now held by Colonel Ronald Storrs, a graduate of Cambridge University and son of the Dean of Rochester College, England.

His task is one to test the administrative ability of any man. Jerusalem is a city of disunions, where, whatever may come of the future, for the moment Zionists and Arabs are passionately at odds.

It is to that task, however, that he courageously devotes himself. Twice a week he has meetings of his favorite pro-Jerusalem Society, where French, Italians, British, Americans, rabbis, Zionists, leaders, commercial men of standing and others who are in any way prominent in the life of the city are brought together and in the course of debate, led to see that they have in common a single citizenship. His motto as governor is "unity and be friends."

Colonel Storrs was one of the prime movers in the establishment of an independent Arab kingdom. He is 38 years old.
